MAY ORDER THE U. S. ARMY TO MEXICO CITY

Carranza's Answer to Last Communication Transmitted to Mediators—Refuse to Declare Armistice—U. S. Believes There Will be no Peace Till the Rebels Get Absolute Control—Opposed to Carranza or Villa Holding Office

NIAGARA FALLS, June 11.—Reports from Sathilo that General Carranza's answer to the last communication to the mediators had been transmitted to Niagara Falls were interpreted here as meaning that Rafael Zubaran, special constitutionalist representative in Washington, had been sent instructions on which to draft the reply. Intimations have come from El Paso and other sources that the constitutionalist answer will refuse to declare an armistice in that the subject will be ignored but that the note will announce the intention of the constitutionalists to send delegates here to discuss the Mexican problem, leaving indefinite the nature of the instructions given to the delegates.

The attack on Zanteens was regarded as indicating the inevitable trend of events if mediation failed. Another possibility is that if mediation is unsuccessful and fighting continues, complications may arise out of conditions of anarchy that would force the American army to move from Vera Cruz to Mexico City.

Neither General Carranza nor General Villa is desired by the United States for provisional president nor is any other Mexican leader. The Mexican delegates have not yet formally expressed their views but they contend that the new president should be a "neutral" unaffected by the passions of any party.

With the idea that constitutionalist representatives will be here soon but will not be admitted to the mediation a suggestion is being considered whereby the American delegates and the Mexican delegates would meet in conference to work out the details of the general armistice or no admission. The mediators take the stand that unless an armistice is declared there will be no admission for the constitutionalist delegates. Nevertheless the mediators have indicated that they would not be averse to discussing questions informally with representatives of General Carranza if they came here.

The injection of the question of constitutionalist representation at this time would tend somewhat to divert the proceedings from the course they have assumed.

The issue today is clearly drawn between the American government and the mediators. The United States has been insisting upon two essential points—the character of the individual who is to be provisional president and the exact method by which he is to be installed. The American government is asking that an out and out constitutionalist be chosen for president but a man broad enough to respect the rights of the other political factions.

Also the United States objects to having Huerta literally appoint his successor by permitting him to name as foreign minister the man who would be chosen for succession as provisional

A serious hitch has arisen on these points. The American government having undertaken the responsibility of solving the Mexican problem believes there can be no peace in Mexico until the strongest factor—the constitutionalists—is put in absolute control. The alternative, it believed, would be a constitutionalist march on Mexico City.

FEAR SUFFRAGETTES MAY ATTACK COL. ROOSEVELT

Activities of the Militants Have Caused the Withholding From Publication in London Date of Former President's Engagement in England

LONDON, June 11.—Fears of suffragette activities have caused the withholding from publication in London of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt's engagements during his approaching visit to England. It is known, however, that except for his lecture before the Royal Geographic society, Colonel Roosevelt at his own request will take no part in public functions while he is in London. On the other hand an extensive list of private entertainments has been arranged so that the colonel may have the opportunity of meeting prominent people whom he most desires to see.

Sir Edward Grey, secretary of state for foreign affairs, is to give a luncheon in honor of Colonel Roosevelt on June 15 and on that occasion most of the leading members of the liberal party will be present. Before this, however, immediately after the arrival of Colonel Roosevelt from the continent, Mr. Page, the American ambassador, is to entertain him at lunch. The colonel is to spend a week end at Chequers court, the country residence in Buckinghamshire of Arthur Hamilton Lee, a unionist member of the house of commons, who is to be the host of the former president of the United States all the time he is in England.

NEWS OF THE LEGISLATURE

Late Judge Pratt's Widow Denied Salary—Milk Consumers' Bill—Railroad Employees Favored

BOSTON, June 11.—In declining to approve in veto messages sent to the house yesterday, appropriations for the payment to the widow of Judge Nathan Dexter Pratt of Lowell and the widow of Judge John Joseph Flaherty, the balance of the salaries the justices would have received had they lived until the end of the fiscal year, Gov. Walsh established a precedent in the matter of the state's attitude.

Although past legislatures have been known to refuse to pass bills appropriating money for such a purpose, the instances are said to be rare when such action was taken. Some of those who have followed proceedings on Beacon Hill for many years declare there has never been a record of a governor vetoing such a measure.

Gov. Walsh said in his message that if the practice is a sound one, a general law should be enacted providing for such a gratuity at the death of any judge employed by the state. He can see no distinction, he says, between a superior court justice and a laborer in the matter of providing a gratuity. In fact, he says the reasons are stronger for the latter's widow receiving a gratuity.

The governor says that while such legislation appeals to the sympathies, the extension of the practice would result in an imposition on the taxpayers.

These vetoes make the seventh and eighth which he has sent to the legislature since he took office.

His reasons are given in the message on the bill for Judge Pratt's widow. In the course of that message he said: "The amount which this measure would withdraw from the public treasury for this purpose is $30,000."

"In my judgment, the practice of paying to widows or next of kin the balance of the salaries of certain individual employees of the commonwealth while during the term of their office is indefensible."

The commonwealth deals generously with the justices of our courts. They are given from two to three months' vacation each year; their tenure of office is for life; they are paid their full salaries during times of illness, no matter how long they are absent from their duties; and a liberal pension is provided for them after reaching the age limit and retiring in the pension law. He says legislation of this kind will lead eventually to determining on the question of providing a gratuity in the cases of justices of the supreme court and all other courts, and would justify extension of the same generosity toward all state officials and their families.

The governor also says: "A payment to the widow or next of kin of an employee of the state cannot be justified because it is a pure gift to the recipient. Further, the language of the supreme judicial court in its Massachusetts reports, would seem to indicate

To Help Nature Shed a Bad Complexion

Beauty devotees are enthusiastic over the beautifying qualities of mercolized wax. Nothing discovered in recent years accomplishes so much, so quickly, without harm, at such small expense. The principal reason for its wonderful merit is that it works in harmony with physiological laws. Instead of hiding complexion defects, it removes them. It actually takes on the aged, faded, yellow, freckled, blotchy, cuticle, gently, gradually, causing no inconvenience. It is Nature's way of renewing complexions. When the natural process is retarded because of deficient circulation of nerve force, mercolized wax comes to the rescue and hastens the skin shedding. The new complexion which appears is a natural, only youthful, healthy, exquisitely beautiful. If you've never tried mercolized wax, get an ounce of it at the drug store, use it at night like cold cream, washing it off in the morning.

Another natural beautifying treatment for wrinkled skin is to bathe the face in a lotion made by dissolving an ounce of saffron in a half-pint of witch hazel. This is remarkably and instantaneously effective.

any bills and yet he says we are going to keep the tax rate down and he is going to take it out of these poor, helpless boys in these institutions.

"Both committees reported favorably on these bills. Now we see the committee men talking against these bills. The trouble is that there are some commissions to be filled. They do not want to get on the outs with the governor."

You voted this morning to let 500 boys sleep in the corridors of the Lyman school. You do not care as long as you hand out to the people in the fall the old stuff about looking out for their interests.

Mr. White of Newton said he cared very little what was said about future appointments. The governor is responsible for this veto, he said. "The committee on ways and means has not seen these institutions. Many people are in these institutions that do not belong there."

Mr. Tague of Boston said that there is need of a more extensive probation system to relieve congestion in these institutions. "These institutions are full of innocent boys who are sent there on the whim of some judge," he continued. "The governor is too big a man to cater to the whims of any members of this house. When he vetoes these bills he knows what he is doing."

Meek, Hickey and Donovan of Boston supported the veto.

By a rollcall vote, 75 to 137, the veto was sustained.

Measure on Adams Taxes

The battle on the Adams bill was opened. Under the provisions of a bill passed by the present legislature, which Gov. Walsh has vetoed, if a man comes a law without his signature, two years are allowed the taxpayers in which to pay their taxes instead of one year, which has heretofore been the law.

The town of Adams, it appears, has had its own method of collecting taxes by which the taxpayers are allowed a certain discount if the bill is paid within a certain period. The house yesterday first considered an amendment to the bill, which provided that the town be allowed to collect its taxes for the next two years. This was rejected, 53 to 115. Action on the bill itself will be taken today.

Will Close on June 17

Gov. Walsh in a communication to Sergeant-at-Arms Thomas F. Patrick of the state house said the executive department will be closed on June 17.

Further requests the sergeant-at-arms to place in different state departments to this effect and request them to also close their departments on that day if they can do so without detriment to the public service.

POSTMASTER IS DEAD

BOSTON, June 11.—Postmaster R. K. Sawyer, Wellesley, died at his home in Wellesley yesterday after 10 days' illness. He was 44 years old and had lived in Wellesley for more than 40 years.

He was first appointed postmaster by President Cleveland in 1886, and was reappointed by every succeeding president.

Born in North Yarmouth, Me., where his forefathers settled shortly after 1820, he was educated in the district schools and prepared for Dartmouth at Kimball Union academy. He matriculated at Dartmouth, but was obliged to discontinue his studies there because of poor health.

When he came to Wellesley, Mr. Sawyer entered the employ of Henry F. Durant, founder of Wellesley College. He served the town as a selectman in 1885 and was always active in town affairs.

Mr. Sawyer was a member of the Meridian lodge and Parker Royal Arch chapter, both of Natick Commandery, Knights Templar, and of Aleppo Temple, Mystic Shrine, Boston. He was a past grand in Shinerby lodge, I. O. O. F., Wellesley.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon in St. Andrew's Episcopal church, of which he was treasurer. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. E. Ellen Flagg Sawyer.

Mr. John F. McNulty and Miss Katherine F. Donoghue, two well known young people, were united in marriage last evening at the parochial residence of St. Peter's church, Rev. Daniel J. Keleher, Ph. Although moderate relatives and friends attended the reception which followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Donoghue, 4 Hazeltine street, guests from New York, Boston, Ayr and Manchester, N. H., also were present to enjoy the gay festivities, and the scene was one of much beauty. Following the lawn was lighted with Japanese lanterns, and the serving of refreshments was under the trees, while later with the tables cleared away the young people enjoyed a dance on the green.

The ceremony took place at 5.30 o'clock, the bride being prettily dressed in white crepe de meteor, cut on train, with Chantilly lace trimmings. She wore a Watteau hair with streamers, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids. The bridegroom was in white and carried a sword.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party drove to the home of the bride, 4 Hazeltine street. The ushers there were: Dr. Richard J. McCluskey, Frederick T. Doherty, James F. Hennessy, Dr. J. Joseph McGreevey, Joseph G. Pyne, John H. Pyne and Charles R. Griffin. There were many beautiful gifts. One of the very charming features of the reception was the artistic decoration of the home, garlands of purple and white wisteria being used in the interior and contributing a wholly charming touch. Mr. and Mrs. McNulty left for a honeymoon trip on the 8.55 train for parts unknown.

A SIMPLE WAY TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Prevent Falling Hair and End Itching Scalp.

There is one sure way that has never failed to dissolve dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arsenic from any drug store (this is all you will need) and apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Evening dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single dandruff particle. It is a matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be healthy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

LADY LOOKABOUT

When going along through country regions in steam cars or by trolley,

I take great pleasure in observing the advertising sign boards that are to be seen everywhere. It is interesting to note the different methods adopted by the advertiser to catch the eye and hold the attention of passers-by. Some make the mistake of presenting too much reading matter. Others use a picture of some sort. If a firm uses the same picture in all its advertisements, it comes to mean something to the reader, but when the picture is simply a whim of the sign painter's, used perhaps on only one board, its value is questionable. The more I observe these signs, the more I am inclined to think that a few concise words, a catch-phrase, which attracts the eye, then holds the attention, even after the advertisement has passed from view, is the one of greatest value to the merchant who exploits his wares. I have just seen one on the road from Lowell to Boston that seems to me to be unusually good. It may be seen many times before reaching the city, and many more times within the city. The originator evidently knows the value of repetition, for the advertisement appears in the same form in each case. A delicious, crispy loaf of bread is seen painted on the board. Beside it runs this legend: "Bread. Makes men of boys—makes boys of men. So everywhere." I think this is one of the best advertisements I have ever seen. Again and again, by appearing so frequently, it does it impress itself on one's mind, and again and again it makes its little appeal to both young and old. It would be interesting to follow the sales of this bread, for if it has any merit at all, the responses to the advertisement should be many.

But after all what do such advertisements amount to compared to a great and attractive "ad" in a newspaper like The Sun, that is read by fully half of the population of Lowell daily. These billboards, however ingeniously devised, are but a poor advertising medium after all and they too often an eyesore along our city streets and along the roads leading in and out of our city where they deface the beautiful scenery. They make such extravagant claims that the public generally has long ago learned to disregard them. Thus adverse public sentiment and again they destroyed their value as an advertising medium.

Kicking Up the Dust

An automobile, followed by a tremendous cloud of dust, whizzed past me. Blinded and choking, I turned to look after it, prompted, I suppose, by the same impulse which makes a man turn and inspect the spot on the sidewalk on which he has just fallen. Attached to the automobile cover were these words, painted in huge letters of black on a white ground: "Excuse our dust." Insult added to injury! My ire rose and I refused to excuse. And I have withheld my forgiveness and I intend to withhold it. I know how such action on my part must hurt the occupants of the machine, but I do not care. I am adamant on this point, so there.

Mr. Morse Threatened

Such a mess as some of our recently oiled streets are in! The macadamized portion of Gorham street is positively unsafe for automobiles, with its thick reeking layer of oil. I saw one today skid across the street and on to a nearby lawn before it could be brought to a standstill. Thordike street is another street where oily mud is in order, but I suppose it will sink into the roadbed there, but the hard surface of Gorham street will never absorb it. When we women are granted suffrage, we will probably have a lady street commissioner who will order oil from which the objectionable odor has been removed. Then any locality which has a preference for any particular odor, may have its choice. I would like rose on my street. Do you not like the scent of roses, Mr. Morse?

The Knockers

I have recently met with an article on the "knocker" the man who is continually knocking somebody, who is always dissatisfied with existing conditions and who yet does nothing to improve them. He is akin to the raller and brawler who sometimes appear in police court. He talks as if everybody was dishonest, nobody fit to be trusted—in his opinion. If we judge him by his distrust of others, he is certainly unworthy of our confidence—rather, a disturber and a nuisance that eventually becomes the pest of society. I recommend the following for the careful consideration of the local knockers:

This fellow is like a mosquito—he is not only a nuisance but a menace. He's a nuisance because he's a bore, and he sings his song on a single string until people get marially tired, but he's a menace because he scatters unfriendly criticism, breeds dissatisfaction and chooses optimism.

The knocker never builds, but tears down—the better the building the more active he is in its destruction. He never cheers—only jeers—and success is the flash of a red flag in his face.

He never praises—no indeed. But he never misses a chance to criticize unfairly, and is always ready with his eternal "I told you so."

He never pushes up hill but puts on the brakes. He never scoots the wheel going down but gives it a shove.

His stock in trade is persistency. He wastes fat on others' troubles. He finds a hidden meaning in every worthy act, and an unworthy motive to public-spirited deeds.

It seems queer that a sane community should allow the knocker to do any damage. People often remember the things he has said, after they had forgotten who said them.

What are we going to do with him? We cannot exterminate him, because he bears a sufficient resemblance to a human being to come under the protection of the law.

We cannot educate him, because we can never convince him. The link in his brain can never be straightened by any reasoning process.

Don't argue with him—just let him alone. Even though his skin is like that of a pachyderm, he hates loneliness. He must have an audience.

When he knocks, don't listen—move on. When he jeers, change your seat, or remember that you have an engagement.

If this fellow is not muzzled, he'll bask in every chance he gets. Let's muzzle him.

Let's all agree that we will reach the knocker that there's no place for him in Lowell, and that if he wants company he will have to become a contributing member of the Optimist club.

The Flag

Does it not seem that the patriotic zeal which prompts men to don a hat at half-staff on Memorial day, would also prompt him to take it down before a week or more had passed? Yet this has happened in one case I know about. And while I am on the subject, I am going to tell some who seem to have forgotten it, that only on board a ship is a flag hung at half mast; on land, it is hung at half staff.

LADY LOOKABOUT.

FIRST TEST VOTE OF TOLLS

SENATE PASSES SIMMONS-NORRIS AMENDMENT TO REPEALER, 50 TO 24

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The senate last night adopted the Simmons-Norris amendment qualifying the canal tolls exemption repeal bill by a vote of 50 to 24.

This was the first test vote after six weeks of debate on the repeal bill. Even the most optimistic senators who favored repeal had not expected the amendment to carry by so large a majority. It is not believed, however, that the bill itself can be put through by so great a margin.

Nine democratic senators—Ashurst, Martin, O'Gorman, Pomeroy, Randall, Reed, Shields, Walsh and Williams—voted against the amendment. Several of these, however, are expected to vote for the repeal bill, while several republicans who supported the amendment are expected to line up against the bill.

The Amendment

The amendment as adopted, reads as follows:

"Provided that the passage of the act shall not be construed or held as a waiver, or relinquishment of any right, the United States may have, under the treaty with Great Britain, ratified the 1st of February, 1802, or the treaty with the republic of Panama, ratified Feb. 28, 1804, or otherwise, to discriminate in favor of its vessels in exempting the vessels of the United States or its citizens from payment of tolls for passage through said canal, or as in any way waiving, impairing or affecting any right of the United States under said treaty or otherwise with the respect to the sovereignty or the ownership, control or management of said canal and the regulation of the conditions or charges of passage."

ORIGINAL AMERICAN FLAG THAT INSPIRED "STAR SPANGLED BANNER" SAVED FROM AGE

REPAIRING ORIGINAL STAR SPANGLED BANNER

WASHINGTON, June 11.—To preserve it from disintegrating due to age the original flag that flew over Fort Mifflin at Baltimore during the war of 1812 with England is being repaired by the expert needlewoman of the government. It was this flag that inspired Francis Scott Key to write "The Star Spangled Banner" in 1814, just 100 years ago, the centenary of which will be observed with an elaborate celebration at Baltimore.

COAL DEALERS ELECT

LOWELL MAN ON THE LIST OF VICE PRESIDENTS OF N. E. ASSOCIATION

BOSTON, June 11.—Business men were urged to give close attention to pending legislation, both state and national, by Harry F. Atwood, field secretary of the chamber of commerce of the United States, who spoke yesterday afternoon in Horticultural hall at the closing session of the New England Coal Dealers association convention.

D. F. Williams of the Hudson Coal company, Scranton Pa., also spoke at yesterday afternoon's session. About 250 were present. President W. A. Clark and ex-President George Cooper of Pittsfield discussed the question of the short weights in shipping. The former suggested the concentration of all short weight claims against railroads through one office, declaring that the railroads stand the expense of short weights on nearly all other commodities they handle.

A vote was taken in favor of four suggestions from the national chamber of commerce relative to pending trust legislation: viz. that no attempt should be made by statute to forbid discrimination in the prices of commodities; that the proposal to compel controllers of mine products to sell to all applicants is undesirable; that there should be no statutory prohibition of conditions of sales and leases preventing buyers or lessees from using the products of competitors; and that decisions in equity cases between the government and trusts or monopolies shall hold in private suits against the same companies.

The following officers were elected yesterday: W. A. Clark of Northampton, president; George A. Sheldon of Greenfield, treasurer; F. G. Blodgett of Springfield, N. H., J. F. McCusker of New Haven, Eliot Lyman of Burlington, Vt., E. A. Wilson of Lowell, George E. Shaw of Pawtucket, and Lyman K. Lee of Foxcroft, Me., vice presidents; F. A. Whiting of Holyoke and George E. Copeland of Worcester, executive committee.

GOV. WALSH AT SHERBORN

EXECUTIVE CALLS WOMEN PRISONERS DAUGHTERS OF THE STATE AND IS APPLAUDED

BOSTON, June 11.—After dedicating the new Dowsie Memorial library in Sherborn yesterday afternoon, Governor Walsh visited the Sherborn reformatory for women and addressed the prisoners, being the first governor to appear before the inmates of that institution in more than a score of years.

The governor urged the women to co-operate with the officials in making Sherborn the leading institution of its kind in the country. He told them that they were all daughters of Massachusetts, that the commonwealth wanted to see them get along and that he would like to pardon everyone of them if such a thing was possible. Time and time again during his short speech the governor was applauded, and when he was leaving the inmates all stood up and cheered him for several minutes.

The scene in the chapel was a touching one. The inmates, some of them with snow white hair, sat with tears in their eyes and their heads bent forward as a sto catch every word that the governor might say. The governor had nothing but words of praise and encouragement for the women. He told them they were not at the institution wholly because they were bad but also as an example to others. He said he was not there to criticize them, but to cheer them, for he realized that there were many at liberty who were just as bad, if not worse, than those who were unfortunate enough to be confined. At the dedication exercises, which were held in the town hall, the governor was also accorded a strenuous welcome. A holiday had been declared in the town and business was suspended during the exercises. As he entered the hall to deliver his speech the governor was cheered by more than 1000 persons, who stood up to welcome him. He spoke in the highest terms of the late Rev. Edmund S. Dowsie, in whose honor the library was erected by his son, William H. Dowsie of West Newton. He told how, as chaplain of the Massachusetts senate for 25 years, Mr. Dowsie had won the affection of all the senators and how he impressed everyone with his high and lofty motives and a deepness of service. After the services the townspeople held a reception to the governor outside the hall, and it is estimated that he shook hands with about 500 persons.

SUES MORGAN ESTATE

NEW HAVEN, June 11.—The suit of Clarence L. Barber against the estate of the late J. Pierpont Morgan for $250,000 damages went to trial in the superior court yesterday before Judge Williams and a jury.

Barber's action is in connection with stock in Mexican mines, alleged to have been sold by him to Morgan. The suit is being tried in New Haven because the charter for the mine company was granted by the Connecticut legislature. In 1911, when Barber brought his suit, he attached 25,000 shares of New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad stock.

MOVEMENT IRREGULAR

AT OPENING—STEEL SHARES NOT AFFECTED BY REPORT—MARKET CLOSED EASY

NEW YORK, June 10.—Speculation was held down to minimum proportions when the stock market opened today. There was nothing in the way of new information to guide traders and few changes of consequence were effected in quotations. Movements were irregular. Slight gains were in the majority but a number of active shares, including Steel, Reading or S. P. were at or below yesterday's level. Such changes as occurred toward midday were of an irregular character, the leaders for the most part moving within minor fractions, although Reading reflected further pressure, as did also New York Central. American Smelting rose a point and Distillers 1 1/2, with heaviness in some other specialties. The traction were not favorably affected by declaration of an extra five per cent. dividend for Interborough Rapid Transit, whose preferred stock fell back a point. Another gold engagement of $2,000,000 for Europe was announced, making the aggregate of that movement this for this year close to $50,000,000. Steel shares were not affected by the decrease of 275,000 tons shown in the United States Steel monthly statement which was in line with expectations. Greater activity was reported in certain branches of the steel trade. Additional encouraging state crops forecasts were received and cable advice told of a turn for the better in foreign political and financial conditions. The market made no response to these bullish indications holding virtually unchanged during the early afternoon. The market closed steady. Narrow and irregular movements governed today's speculation. Prices ultimately dropped because of the weakness of special issues and subsidence of bullish operations among industrialists. Selling of Missouri Pacific and Lehigh caused prices to sag more generally toward the end.

BOSTON, June 10.—Trading was extremely dull on the local exchange during the forenoon hours today. Prices generally held firm.

PROTEST TO GOV. WALSH

BOSTON, June 10.—A protest asking for an investigation of the state saving bank commissioner department has been filed with Governor Walsh by an attorney of this city. It became known today. While the reason for the protest is not known it is understood to have arisen from the attorney's dissatisfaction at the action of Bank Commissioner Thorndyke in suspending, and failing to report on an investigation of charges against officers of a certain bank.

BLACK HAND THREATS

TWO ICE HOUSES DESTROYED WHEN OWNER IGNORED THREATENING LETTERS

WESTELY, R. I., June 10.—Following the alleged receipt by Howard Lindstrom of Crompton of Black Hand threats against him, his family and his property, two icehouses owned by him were destroyed early today by a fire of incendiary origin. The damage is estimated at $5000. April 6th Lindstrom received a letter telling him the "Colorado black hand" must have $500 by April 12. He was directed to put the $500 at the foot of a big tree in the woods near his home.

Lindstrom with two employees went to the place at the time named. They claim they found there a man who apparently could not talk good English. He hurried from the place after they had questioned him.

RESOLUTE WON

Defiance Made First Appearance in Trials But Dropped Out

ASSOCIATED PRESS BOAT, OFF SANDY HOOK, N. J., June 10.—(By wireless)—The New York Yacht club's sloop Resolute today won the fifth race of the series preliminary to the selection of the America's cup defender over a windward and leeward course, 22 miles in all, off Sandy Hook. She beat Alexander S. Cochran's Vanitie by about four minutes without taking advantage of her time allowance. The Defiance, owned by the tri-city syndicate made her first appearance in the cup preliminaries today but dropped out of the race on the first leg. Trouble with her untied rigging had caused her to lag hopelessly behind.

It was the third victory for Resolute. Apparently it proved her owner's contention that she is superior to Vanitie in a good steady breeze. The wind today blew eight miles an hour. The winning yacht was away ahead of her two rivals and was always in the lead. A big host of excursion boats followed the racers and thousands saw the contest, straining their eyes from points of vantage on the New Jersey shore.

The official times at the finish were: Resolute, 2:33 57; Vanitie 2:37 57.

"Two great monopolies which have succeeded most completely in exploiting the public and crushing organized labor."

The letter opens by declaring that a "situation exists in the progressive party which must be terminated before it can command general popular support."

CAMBRIDGE, June 10.—Frank J. One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place yesterday at a nuptial mass celebrated at St. Patrick's church, when Dr. John Daly, a resident of Andover with offices at Lynn and Miss Mary Agnes O'Brien, bookkeeper at the Merrimack Clothing Co. of this city, and a cousin of Rev. The mass was celebrated at 10 o'clock by Rev. James White of Portsmouth, N. H., a cousin of the bridegroom, while the nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Monsignor O'Brien, assisted by Rev. William O'Brien, pastor of St. Patrick's, and Rev. William O'Brien of Cambridge, Mass., both cousins of the bride.

ELECTRIC ROAD MERGER

Some phases of the suggested merger of the electric roads of New England as advocated by President D. F. Sullivan of the Bay State Street railway and incorporated in a bill just introduced into the legislature by James P. Jackson, are worthy of commendation, but there are possibilities which demand that the matter be given long and serious thought before any great change is made in existing conditions. That the railroads, both steam and electric, are suffering from too much legislation, from a hostile public attitude, from the demands of modern conditions and from economic and labor demands is undoubted; that some remedial legislation is needed is also undoubted, but that the plan of merger under one management would be tantamount to infringing on the rights and privileges of the public is not so certain. Undoubtedly the railroads would be able to run more economically, more efficiently and more scientifically, but there is the danger of permitting the railroads or railroad to become a pernicious and selfish monopoly.

If the many smaller and unrelated railroads of this section of the country could be grouped under one responsible and efficient management without danger of infringing on the public rights or imposing greater financial burdens on the public, such an amalgamation would be beneficial. At the present time many of the railroads are merely struggling along; none of them are making enormous profits. Some of them are operating at a positive loss. The different managements result in general inconvenience and lack of elasticity, demonstrated forcibly by inconveniences in transfer arrangements or lack of them. A rearrangement under efficient management could give far better service and might relieve the railroads from a great deal of present overlapping expense, but the financial advantage to the roads should not spell financial disadvantage to the public. If the railroads can further economy and good service by amalgamation, without increasing fares, then let us have amalgamation by all means; if amalgamation on the other hand means a saving of money for the many properties with a greater burden on the public, people will be apt to regard the combine as an undesirable monopoly, and if people get to so regard it, the last state of the railroads will be worse than the first. The New Haven road stands as a glaring example of the result of unpopularity.

It is apparent that those who favored the amalgamation scheme do not overlook the popular demand for proper supervision in matters of this nature, for the bill introduced by the former railroad commissioner provides for regulation of rates by the public service commission. If this supervision can be depended on fully, and if it is certain to be thorough and just to public and railroads alike, there is more in the plan to be commended than to be condemned. Nevertheless, it is not a question that such a gigantic proposition should be acted on at the present time when the legislature is winding up the affairs of a busy and tiresome session. Far better that the matter be acted by the sponsors of the suggestion and by the public generally in all its phases before any attempt is made to put it on the statute books. The scheme is too recent and its effects are too far reaching for intelligent action at this time by either the legislature or the public. Haste may bring regret; reasonable delay has no dangers. Let the matter go over to the next session of the legislature and let there be ample and open discussion of it in every particular before official action is taken.

FIRST STREET DUMP

For many days past trees have burned continually on the first street dump and a cloud of polluted and foul-smelling smoke has filled the air to the annoyance and discomfort of the residents of Merrimack Square and to the annoyance and inconvenience also of the hundreds who have passed on the cars along First street. When the wind blew in the direction of the city the foul odor was plainly perceptible in the business streets adjoining Merrimack square, and yet apparently little or no effort has been made to stifle the fires which have become a public nuisance. Complaints have reached this office from residents of Merrimack square who say that they are unable to sit on the piazzas in the evening owing to the smoke from the burning dump and that the odor is perceptible in their homes throughout the day.

There is no excuse for this condition, and it should not be permitted to exist again, for a very slight effort on the part of the fire department or other municipal department would stop the smoldering if attended to in its early stages. Dumps occasionally go on fire from spontaneous combustion and at other times children do the work, but such fires should not be permitted to drag on so long as to become intolerable to the people in the vicinity and to those who are compelled to pass in the vicinity. The people of any section and of all sections are entitled to consideration and it is indefensible that the authorities should show such a disregard for the public as to permit such a condition to continue for days without striving to put an end to it.

It will be remembered that a few years ago when the Aiken street dump was allowed to burn periodically, the public lost patience and made an unmistakable demand on the authorities who did not remain long unresponsive. What was true of Aiken street then seems true of First street now, but in the case of First street the evil would seem to be greater because of the proximity of the spot to the heart of the city and because of the heights all around that are certain to suffer from the noxious fumes. Those who are responsible for the long delay in attending to the recent fire on the First street dump should wake from their lethargy and take such prompt action as will ensure to the people of the vicinity freedom from the nuisance in the future. Public patience is by no means inexhaustible, and the best way to strain it to the limit is to permit such a preventable occurrence as a dump fire to poison the air for days without making any real attempt to remedy it. The people want the First street dump free from noxious fumes both at the present time and for the future, and they will insist that it be attended to by the proper authorities. The department responsible for piling up the dump might see that all fires occurring there shall receive prompt attention by the firemen.

FLAG DAY

A very desirable feature of the Flag day observance in this city next Sunday will be the participation of private citizens, unrelated to any official body as a parade feature, each carrying an American flag for it is for people generally and for everyday things that the American flag preeminently stands for other nations rarely speak of their flag except in terms of war; America speaks of its flag in terms of peace. Not because it rules the waves, or marks the march of victorious troops, or spells territorial conquest, do we mean a saving of money for the many properties with a greater burden on the public, people will be apt to regard the combine as an undesirable monopoly, and if people get to so regard it, the last state of the railroads will be worse than the first. The New Haven road stands as a glaring example of the result of unpopularity.

When Lawrence recovered from the effects of the terrible strike a few years ago its first official action as a municipality was to organize a great Flag day party out of protest at the denunciations of some of the labor agitators who had paralyzed its industries but more especially to instill into its citizens a love for things truly American. The example of Lawrence has been powerful for good in awakening regard for the flag, and it is well that occasionally all municipalities should emphasize its dignity and significance especially at the present when so many are striving to propagate new and dangerous doctrines. It remains for the people of Lowell to turn out next Sunday with their flags, to march through the streets and to listen to the patriotic addresses in the common. We have many special days of national or state observance but we cannot afford to ignore or neglect Flag day in its revived importance.

CANAL TOLLS AND POLITICS

One of the most illuminating side-lights on the canal tolls controversy in Washington was given in a speech of the irrepressible Senator Tillman on Tuesday when he condemned President Wilson for his stand, not because it was wrong in principle but because it was in violation of the principle of democracy. He was wrong in principle because it was a violation of any more lofty motive. This should not be so surely, for, as Senator Lodge pointed out in his recent famous speech, party politics should be at the water's edge. Even though the best sincere democrat in the country should be absolutely at variance with the president in his canal tolls views, he cannot regard the president's stand as other than sincere, and he cannot justly question he may feel towards him with regard to it. There is room for honest difference of opinion, but no cause for party warfare in the canal tolls controversy. The president is serving in this matter to do his duty to the people in the vicinity and as he sees it—and he sees it in a most to those who are compelled to pass in the vicinity. The people of any section and of all sections are entitled to

BLOCKING MIDDLE STREET

If the traffic rules of the city were enforced, Middle street could not be used so generally as a parking place for automobiles, but since the street is still so used despite frequent and vehement protest, we must conclude that in this respect as in others the police department is very negligent. Middle street is a business street with many thriving stores and industries, and those who do business thereon cannot be blamed if they feel that they have a just grievance against the city for allowing automobilists to let their cars stand for long stretches as though the street were a parking place or a man's land. There is no more reason why Middle street should be blocked any more than Merrimack or Central streets and if its abutters were not so patient the condition would have been remedied long ere this. Traffic rules should be enforced here and elsewhere without further delay, not spasmodically or in a special effort spirit but constantly and consistently. Middle street has suffered far too long already.

Even those who had hoped for the most successful outcome of the mediation proceedings at Niagara felt that the wily Huerta was bluffing in his apparent severity or else that he had a trump card up his sleeve. The card is now revealed in his declaration that he will agree to resign only on condition that he be allowed to appoint his successor. Mexico may not be ready for representative government as we know it but any court of arbitration that would harbor Huerta's suggestion for a moment is little better than a farce. The dictator may change his mind, however, if Villa gets close to Mexico City before the Niagara proceedings are brought to a close.

The long delayed warm weather is here at last, apparently, and as usual those who have been grumbling most will be the first to complain of the heat and to wish for some of the cool days of a week ago. Being warm in summer is a physical fact, but it is also due in part to a mental condition. If one sets out to make the best of it, avoids grumblings and grumblers and dresses with more regard for comfort than convention, summer loses most of its terrors.

Quite a little wanton mischief is being done at the present time by groups of boys in the parks where they congregate and in streets surrounding police officers should remember that any gathering of boys and boyish young men will bear watching—especially after dark.

If the city authorities do not see a strong argument for municipal bathhouses in the lines of eager little fellows that daily take surreptitious dips in the dirty canals and dangerous river, all other arguments are useless. The blindest of the blind are still those who won't see.

If June bugs would give more light the city could save the cost of park illumination for another month.

REMARKABLE CASE of Mrs. HAM

Declares Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her Life and Sanity.

Shamrock, Mo.—"I feel it my duty to tell the public the condition of my health before using your medicine. I had falling, inflammation, and congestion, female weakness, pains in both sides, backaches and bearing down pains, was short of memory, nervous, impatient, passed sleepless nights, and had neither strength nor energy. There was always a fear and dread in my mind, I had cold, nervous, weak spells, hot flashes over my body. I had a place in my right side that was so sore that I could hardly bear the weight of my clothes. I tried medicines and doctors, but they did me little good, and I never expected to get out again. I got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and I certainly would have been in grave or in an asylum if your medicines had not saved me. But now I can work all day, sleep well at night, eat anything I want, have no hot flashes or weak, nervous spells. All pains, aches, fears and dreads are gone, my house, children and husband are no longer neglected, as I am almost entirely free of the bad symptoms I had before taking your remedies, and all is pleasure and happiness in my home."

SEEN AND HEARD

The man who is without an idea has generally the greatest idea of himself.

Tommy Hoodman remarked: "Everybody in our family is some kind of an animal." When asked to explain, he said: "Well, you see, mother's a dear, baby sister is mother's lamb, I'm a kid, and dad's the goat."

No doubt Jack Johnson, and perhaps even the veteran John L. Sullivan, hero of many a protracted battle, will be amazed as they observe the prospect that the fight between Huerta and Carranza will last at least 1,000,000 rounds longer.

"Say," exclaimed the excited young man with the discolored optics, "I want you to strike me off a few thousand cards."

"All right, sir," responded the printer. "What shall I put on them?"

"Just print 'None of your business' in the type. The whole next person asks me how I got this black eye I can just hand him a card and save words."—Philadelphia Ledger.

THE REASON WHY
The reason the knocker remains poor is because it gets up early at the alarm of a Connecticut clock, buttons his Chicago suspenders to Detroit overalls; puts on a pair of cowhide shoes made in Ohio; washes in a Pittsburgh tin wash basin; using Cincinnati soap, and drives a cotton towel made in New Hampshire. His dog is a Grand Rapids table, eats hot biscuits made with Minneapolis flour, and Kansas City bacon and Indiana grits fried in Omaha lard, cooked on a St. Louis stove; boys canned fruit put up in California, seasoned with Rhode Island spices; claps on a wool hat made in Philadelphia; harnesses his Missouri mule, fed on Nebraska corn, with a New York harness, and plows his farm covered with a Massachusetts mortgage with an Indiana plow.

At night he crawls under a New Jersey blanket and is kept awake by local dogs, the only home product on the place, and then wonders why he keeps poor.

Moral: Patronize home industries. Spend your money where it will give you a market for what you have to sell.

IT DOES SOUND QUEER
The following letter from a leading German newspaper was recently received by one of our big American dailies:

"The count proceeded, it became evident that Brown had been searched repeatedly by the women voters."

The above situation not being entirely clear to us, kindly afford us enlightenment on the following points:

1. Where was the count going?
2. Was he German?
3. What had Mr. Brown done that the ladies should desire to scratch him?

Thanking you kindly in advance for the desired information, we beg to remain, Very truly yours,

THE GIRL OF TODAY
One of our "popular" novelists has recently been pleading for the "humanization of the woman" in our fiction, and for the removal of the veil of illusion from women and an analysis of them as frank as that accorded to men. Then as an object lesson in the application of his theory, he has just written a novel about "a girl of the present day," who is described as "in revolt, adventurous, eager and unafraid; without standards or homelies; a passion to explore, but not to experience, and a curiosity fed by the rest of life." If the portrait he paints were a true likeness of the average American middle-class girl today, the picture would be as alarming as it is disgusting.

Unquestionably, the passion for the so-called "humanization" of woman—"humanization" would be a better word—which has seized many modern authors is ruthlessly expelling from the pure-hearted woman. The present-day "heroine" has lost, as a rule, all charm and delicacy, blishes but seldom, and is thoroughly unattractive from "standards." The drift of the time is of a coarser, largely responsible for this condition of things, and enables these novels to enjoy a wide range of "reticence." Immoral fashions, shameless plays, and in particular indecent dances that "everybody is dancing" at night, and during the meals especially, and without question making it much harder for "the girl of today" to be modest and ladylike, and to keep good and pure than it was for the girls of thirty years ago—America.

ONCE AGAIN
Once again has come the season when, for some untold reason, one's internal apparatus gets entirely out of gear: Normal gastric inclinations run amuck for crazy rations, and a poor digestive status makes world look sad and drear.

While our appetites are nutty we incline toward tacks and putty. Or a diet of tar paper, moth balls, sealing wax and glue; And because our heads are dizzy All our relatives get busy Telling us our eyeballs caper from dark green to lemon hue.

Doc says exercise will fix us, And he promptly comes and sticks us Full of queer, new-fangled messes, coal tar dope and triticates; Then the nurse puts on a plaster That brings havoc and disaster, And we relegate their guesses to the well-known hot estates.

Yes, once more has come the season When for some confounded reason There's a ring of greenish yellow Round the pupil of each eye; But spring doctors bring a shiver That would rattle most any liver, If they didn't make a fellow yearn for some safe place to die.

FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD

BOSTON MAY LOSE REPRESENTATION—HERSHEY OF BALTIMORE LIKELY CANDIDATE

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Omer F. Hershey, a Baltimore lawyer, was being talked of in official circles yesterday as a likely choice for membership on the federal reserve board.

It has been generally believed that the fifth member of the board would be selected from New England. The New York federal reserve district is to be represented by Paul M. Warburg, the Atlantic district by W. P. G. Harding, and the San Francisco district by A. C. Miller, while it is generally expected that E. C. Simmons will represent the St. Louis district.

This leaves the Boston, Richmond, Cleveland, Dallas, Kansas City, Minneapolis, Chicago and Philadelphia districts from which the fifth man can be chosen. Strong efforts have been made to get the place for Boston.

DEATH IN WAKE OF HEAT

BRIGHTON MAN DIED FROM HEAT—JUMP OF 32 DEGREES IN 24 HOURS WITH TEMPERATURE OF 88

BOSTON, June 11.—Following one of the coldest June days in Boston weather annals, yesterday was one of the three hottest on record for June 10, having a maximum of 88 degrees. This was duplicated in 1853 and 1905.

The jump of 32 degrees between Tuesday and Wednesday brought its toll of suffering that resulted yesterday in one death and one serious prostration.

John W. Fleming, aged 69, of 3 Market street, Brighton, was found dead in bed. The medical examiner said the cause of death was heat.

James H. Williams, aged 66, of 63 Waltham street, was prostrated on West Brookline street in the afternoon and was sent to the City hospital.

Yesterday's maximum, 88, at 3 p. m., was in striking contrast with Tuesday's highest record, 52, and only the high wind that prevailed much of the day, the velocity being 25 miles an hour during the hottest portion, saved Bostonians from much greater discomfort.

There have been few days in June during the weather bureau's history with a higher maximum than yesterday's, and they were seldom more than two or three degrees higher.

A second contrast between yesterday's temperature and that of the day before was the record during the 24 hours. That of Tuesday was only five degrees, while that of yesterday was 36. The change from minimum to maximum Tuesday took place between 7 and 11 a. m. Yesterday 10 hours were required for the same change.

Each year also yesterday's highest temperature record was 61, or 27 degrees lower than yesterday's maximum, and that figure was reached only for a few minutes.

PATROLMAN'S TRIAL ON

EDWARD C. FITZGERALD OF EAST DEDHAM STREET STATION, BOSTON, SAYS CASE IS FRAMUP

BOSTON, June 11.—Before a trial board composed of Capt. Irving A. Lee, Penobscot of Division 3, Hugh J. Lee of Division 6 and Thomas P. Goode of Division 16 Patrolman Edward C. Fitzgerald of the East Dedham street station was charged at police headquarters yesterday afternoon with neglect of duty. The trial was unfinished at 4 o'clock and will be renewed at a later date.

A complaint had been received that some patrolman was leading in a building and Capt. Driscoll sent Sergt. Joseph Hurley, who is on duty days, out to watch the building which the anonymous complainant mentioned.

Hurley says that he found Patrolman Fitzgerald in there when he should have been patrolling his route. When Hurley started out he had no idea who was going to be caught.

Fitzgerald says that the case is a frameup. A petition bearing several thousand names collected in the South End asking for a dismissal of the charges will be sent to headquarters. Patrolman Fitzgerald is the man who charged Patrolman Roland P. Green and John T. Flaherty with attacking him on Garland street early on the morning of Feb. 21. They were dismissed from the service March 30.

ABOUT OILED STREETSBut Commissioner Charlie Morse
Says That the Dear Things Will Get Used to the Oil—Congestion
in Gorham Street—City Hall
Gossip

Charles J. Morse, commissioner of streets and highways, is not quite sure yet as to the popularity of the road oil that he is using on some of the streets in Lowell. He received not less than five complaints by telephone this forenoon from as many women and they don't like the oil the least little bit. They trumpeted their feelings right out over the wire and Charlie told them not to get excited that they would like the oil later on. He assured them that they were not the only women who had kicked about the oil, but that a majority of those who had kicked had repented and had offered apologies. One woman declared that she wouldn't offer any apologies if the oil should turn to gold.

"The trouble about the oil," said Mr. Morse, "is that the children go out and play in it while it is yet wet and of course they carry it into the house on their shoes. Some women will insist upon standing in a pool of oil waiting for a car while there are dry spots all around her."

But all of the women in Lowell are not complaining about the oil. After having heard from the five rather irate women over the phone today Mr. Morse had a caller in the person of a rather mild and timid woman who looked up into Charlie's face and told him the oil was "just too sweet for anything."

The women, however, are not the only ones kicking about the oil. For it was stated today that street car conductors on certain lines are up in arms against what they term a "dirty nuisance."

Mr. Morse is up against it a little bit in Gorham street, too, but he hasn't anything to do with the Gorham street trouble. The paving work is going on between Davis square and Morse street and the street is very narrow at certain points. The street railway company is putting in another crossover opposite the Globe hotel and this, of course, takes up considerable room. Mr. Morse says, however, that he hasn't any apologies to offer for the congestion in Gorham street. "If there was any way of widening the street I would gladly do so," said the alderman. "But as a matter of fact the delay of inconvenience there is not very great and we will get through with the work as quickly as possible."

Fish and Game Commissioner
If you are found physically, good, marksmen, good eyesight, good weather and sunny, fearless and able to stand fatigue and exposure and a good judge of birds and quadrupeds, fish, and the various song and insectivorous things you are in line for a job as deputy fish and game commissioner, but unless you have these and other qualifications that would admit you to the primitive man's class, row away out in the pond while the examination is going on, for a competitive examination is to be held pretty soon and the fellow who grabs it will have a earning capacity of at least $60 a month. Here is a copy of the notice of the examination as received at the city clerk's office today:

in Rome—Other Riots

ROME, June 10.—Another serious riot in connection with the general strike of Italian workmen occurred near the Italian exchange today. A body of strikers trying to reach the center of the city came into contact with strong forces of police and troops, who broke up the parade. Some of the more determined strikers endeavored to erect a barricade while others rushed to the roofs of houses and pelted the soldiers and policemen with tiles, shouting "Hurrah for anarchy!"

Detachments of infantry today occupied the main strategic positions of Rome and troops of cavalry patrolled the principal thoroughfares. Over 200 arrests were made today. So far the extreme party among the

ST. PATRICK'S SCHOOL

For some weeks past the boys of St. Patrick's school have been preparing for their annual entertainment and the tickets for the same are going like hot cakes.

Following the custom of years gone by the program includes a variety exhibition, which promises to outshine anything ever produced by former pupils.

On the entertainment program are to be found such specialties as "The Merry Workers," an action selection showing the little fellows in operation at their different trades and professions. "The Tull Top Hat" club introduces our young aristocrats in a very pleasing selection, "The Little Chinese" in full celestial regalia. "Our Gallant Jack Tars" and last but not least, Professor John O'Leary, who will lecture on "Realization." He will be introduced by John McElahon. And this is not all. Then comes the annual dramatic number, which this year happens to be a five-act drama entitled "Gioulia Na Coppel," or the "Glen of the Horse." The selection was very appropriate, since that "Isle of Isles" is about to realize the fulfillment of years of patient waiting and of ardent longing, home rule.

In order to become acquainted with some of the conditions in Ireland during the last ten years you have only to be present at this entertainment on either the evening of the 16th or the 17th, at the Playhouse.

The ability of the students of St. Patrick's school has never been questioned, not only in matters of daily school work but also in all public entertainments. They deserve the encouragement of all friends of their school, hence, be among those who will honor their school's presentation of this grand entertainment. Matinee, Tuesday, June 16th, for the little ones. Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, 16th and 17th, for the grown ups.

SUPERIOR COURT SESSION MILITANCY CONDEMNED

At the opening of the civil session of the superior court this morning the case of Higgins vs. D. J. Page Co. went to trial before Justice Fox and the jury that was empanelled in the case yesterday afternoon. This is an action of tort brought about by Mrs. Julia Higgins, administratrix of the estate of her late son, James Higgins. The amount claimed is $10,000 and Lawyer J. J. O'Connor appears for the plaintiff, while Trull & Wier defend the interests of the Page Co.

The plaintiff in her declaration claims that on Sept. 15, 1913 James Higgins, her son was crossing Bridge street opposite West Sixth street, when he was struck by an automobile owned and controlled by the defendant company and negligently and recklessly propelled, death resulting later.

The first witness called was Mrs. Higgins who said she is the mother of five children, whose ages are 13, 19, 2, 5 and 2 years. Her husband is dead and she resides at 55 Auburn street. She said on the morning of Sept. 15, 1913, three of her children, including James, left the home at about 8 o'clock, going to St. Michael's school. Later in the forenoon she received a telephone call and she went directly to St. John's hospital, where she saw her son James, lying on a bed and suffering terribly. The woman said she remained at the hospital until 1 o'clock in the afternoon and then returned again at 5 and left for her home at 7:30 o'clock, and her son died shortly afterward.

Dr. John J. Dacey, one of the physicians of St. John's hospital, was then called and he testified to the fact he brought to the institution at about 5:15 a. m. The little fellow complained of pains in the side and an examination resulted in the finding of fractures of the third and fourth ribs on the left side and a puncture in the left lung, as well as other injuries. The doctor testified that the boy was conscious up to within a short time of his death and was suffering considerably.

In a cross examination Dr. Dacey said an autopsy was performed on the body after the boy's death because it was compulsory to do so. He said the boy's right lung being gone and the left lung being in a well advanced stage of tuberculosis. He said in his opinion the injuries to the boy were not sufficient to cause the death of a normal boy and also stated that the boy died from suffocation, this being caused by the puncture in the left lung.

Andrew Fleming, proprietor of the Shu-Fix in Middle street testified he was on his way to his shop on the morning of the accident. He said he saw the boy step in front of the automobile which was going at a rate of between 4 and 8 miles an hour. The boy was thrown over his head and another over his body. He said he believed the accident occurred between 7:45 and 7:50 a. m. The boy was later taken away in the auto.

Afternoon Session
William Nugent, aged 11 years, a companion of the lad who was injured in the accident, was called to the witness stand at the afternoon session and he testified that the boys were on their way to school shortly after 7 o'clock in the morning and that several of them were playing a chase. The lad stated that he saw the auto coming down Bridge street, but did not hear the driver sound his horn or give any warning of his approach. He said the machine continued for several feet after it struck the boy. He went over to James while he lay on the street and saw the wheel marks on his body.

Another lad, Thomas Clarke, nine years, said that he was playing with James Higgins shortly before the accident. About four boys were playing chase along West Sixth street, said James, and the little Higgins lad ran into Bridge street, where he was struck by the auto machine. The witness did not hear any noise to warn him that the automobile was passing. He did not stay on the spot long after the accident as it was nearly time for school to open.

George Groves, Thirteenth street, was on his way to high school on the morning of the accident, passing Sixth street about 8:17 o'clock. He testified that the automobile was coming toward Merrimack square and he saw it strike a boy but did not know from which side of the street the boy came.

Francis Gilbride was also on his way to school at the time of the accident and saw James Higgins and the Thomas Clark playing tag near the corner of West Sixth and Bridge streets. He said James ran from the sidewalk and was run over by a machine. Did not hear any signal of the machine's approach. The witness said that he heard Thomas Clarke shout that the machine was approaching but the little Higgins boy did not hear him. James Polgan and other witnesses corroborated the former witness testimony.

Verdict For Plaintiff
In the case of Krey vs. Snow, an action for $1000 as the result of an automobile accident, in Cambridge, which was given to the jury late yesterday afternoon, a verdict of $204.68 was rendered for the plaintiff this afternoon. The case was tried before Judge Fox in the civil session of the superior court.

Mrs. William Graham of 271 Beach street, will have as her guest for the next two weeks her friend, Mrs. Ada Holliday of North Vassalboro, Me.

Resolution That Government Stop
Reign of Anarchy Adopted by Women's Liberal Federation

LONDON, June 10.—A resolution strongly condemning militancy and demanding urgent action by the government to stop the reign of anarchy was adopted today by a large majority by the conference of the women's liberal federation, now in session here.

Lady Carlisle, the president, in moving the resolution, spoke of the "terrible scourge of violent methods which came right across their own constitutional methods and hindered the woman suffrage movement."

She said: "The disastrous example of unchecked violence of these criminal wreckers is injuring the moral fibre of a considerable number of men and women in this country."

LOCAL TRAINS CHANGE FLEE FOR THEIR LIVES

As a result of conferences and the exchange of communications in reference to the train service, Secretary Murphy of the Lowell board of trade received today the following communication which in effect renounces the local train to Boston and the 1 p. m. train from Boston. While several other improvements in the service were suggested, it was found impossible owing to the financial condition of the road, to increase the number of trains. The train service on some of the divisions of the system will be further curtailed.

Secretary Murphy made a special effort to have the 1:14 p. m. Sunday train reinstated, but was not successful.

The letter in regard to the 1 p. m. and the 1:55 train follows:
Boston, Mass., June 9, 1914.
John H. Murphy, Secretary, Board of Trade, Lowell, Mass.

Dear Sir:
Your favor of the 5th instant, regarding the summer timetable, effective Monday, June 22, renews the 1 p. m. train from Lowell, and also the 1:55 a. m. train when you mention Lowell to Boston, although the leaving time will be 1:04. There will be no trains taken off which are running at the present time, and the usual abundant trains will be run this year the same as last.

Yours truly,
J. D. Tyler,
General Superintendent.

SAN BERNARDINO, CAL. June 10.—

The government leaves protecting the Mojave reservation from the Colorado river broke yesterday, according to a despatch from the Needles. The floods swept through the village and the Indians were forced to flee for their lives. Livestock left behind was drowned. The crest of the flood apparently has passed Needles, but has made the situation there critical, as it caused the current to shift and eat into the banks. The river last night stood at 22 feet at Topeca, the highest stage ever recorded there. At Needles on the Santa Fe river six miles below Needles the river was level with the top of the dike and was flooding houses.

ANOTHER WAR BETWEEN GREECE AND TURKEY

Unrest in Balkan States Has Become Acute, Says the London Times—Due to Drastic Policy of Young Turks in Expelling Greeks From Asia Minor

LONDON, June 11.—Another war between Greece and Turkey is foreshadowed today by the Times, which says the unrest in the Balkans has become acute. Several of the states, it says, recently have been employed in clearing their newly acquired territory of "undesirable" elements and the Bulgarians have been the principal sufferers. The unrest is attributed by the newspaper to the drastic policy of the young Turks in expelling all Greeks from Asia Minor and Turkish Thrace. This policy, the Times believes, is a prelude to a declaration of war upon Greece, the main object being the reconquest by Turkey of Saloniki and the reoccupation of Macedonia.

MURDER TRIAL FIRE ON BRIDGE

Delayed by the Disappearance of Victim's Underclothing

BOSTON, June 11.—The disappearance of a victim's underclothing, which was to have been used as evidence, caused a temporary delay yesterday afternoon in the trial of Mrs. Anna Catania, who is charged with first degree murder in connection with the death of Agrippina Capra in Chelsea, Oct. 3, 1913. The trial was continued today.

The underclothing worn by Capra were believed to have been in the care of the North Grove street morgue, T. H. Kingston and F. L. Green, superintendent and assistant superintendent, respectively, that they did not have the garments, and that they are missing. They said it was customary to preserve all such clothing.

Assistant District Attorney Lavelle is conducting the case against Mrs. Catania, who is being defended by Maurice Kero. In his opening address to the jury Mr. Lavelle said he would try to show that there was a conspiracy between Mrs. Catania and her husband, Joseph Catania, who disappeared after the alleged murder, to kill Capra. Interest in Judge Chase's courtroom, where the case is being tried, centered upon Mrs. Catania, who is a young woman 25 years old. She is rather attractive looking, a typical dark-eyed, dark-haired Italian. In spite of her long stay in jail her cheeks were rosy, and she appeared to take keen interest in the proceedings, seemingly perfectly at ease.

Following the selection of the jury, the jurors, accompanied by the attorneys in the case, were taken to the scene of the alleged crime.

MATRIMONIAL

A pretty marriage took place last night at St. Margaret's rectory, when Mr. Christopher J. Horan and Miss Margaret M. Bagshaw, two well known residents of this city were united in the bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed at 7 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Fr. Higgins. Mr. Bernard Horan, a brother of the bridegroom, and Miss Theresa Sharkey acted as best man and bridesmaid respectively. At the close of the ceremony the bride party retired to the home of the bride's mother, 24 Marlboro street, where a dinner was held, followed by a brief reception. The happy couple left in the evening on a honeymoon trip and upon their return they will reside in a new home they recently purchased in Stevens street.

CARRANZA PLANS TO CAPTURE GEN. HUERTA

Constitutionalists on Way to Mexico City — Antilla Carrying Arms for Rebels Arrives at Tampico — U. S. Army May be Ordered to Mexico City — Carranza's Answer Transmitted to Mediators

WASHINGTON, June 11.—President Wilson and Secretary Bryan were in close touch by private telegraph wire today with proceedings at Niagara Falls, Ont., where the South American mediators and the Huerta and American missions were seeking a way out of the diplomatic maze that delayed adjustment of Mexico's difficulties.

Statements of one of the mediators would be surmounted were reflected in the assertion of Secretary Bryan that the deliberations were "proceeding satisfactorily."

Renewed military operations by the constitutionalists in their campaign toward Mexico City aroused keen interest. Results of the seizure of Zacatecas by Carranza's men eagerly were awaited here after receipt of first reports that the federals were giving way in the face of bitter rifle and artillery fire. Gen. Funston's report that the constitutionalists threatened to cut railroad communication between Huerta's capital and Vera Cruz led to statements by friends of Carranza that the campaign was aimed to capture Huerta and his advisers in case they suddenly determined to quit the capital. The constitutionalists claimed that railroad communication between Mexico City and Pacific coast points had been interrupted and at the first report of any movement by Huerta the coast lines would be severed to prevent any possible attempt by the dictator to reach a port.

Rafael Zubaran, chief of the constitutionalist agency here, still awaited Carranza's note, which he said would be received today. It was expected the note would materially change the situation because Carranza was not expected to agree to an armistice. It was believed, however, the note might reveal to what degree the constitutionalists would be willing to participate in proposals for the establishment of a provisional government.

The War Lord Antilla, carrying a war cargo for the northern faction arrived at Tampico today. Department officials here consistently declined to reveal whether the steamer would be allowed to land the cargo, but there were strong intimations that there would be no interference.

The mystery of the fate of the 2000 federals who fled from Tampico was cleared today by the announcement of their arrival in Mexico City.

CARRANZA'S ANSWER TO LAST COMMUNICATION

NIAGARA FALLS, June 11.—Reports from Saltillo that General Carranza's answer to the last communication to the mediators had been transmitted to Niagara Falls were interpreted here as meaning that Rafael Zubaran, special constitutionalist representative in Washington, had been sent instructions on which to draft the reply. Intimations have come from El Paso and other sources that the constitutionalist answer will refuse to declare an armistice in that the subject will be ignored but that the note will announce the intention of the constitutionalists to send delegates here to discuss the Mexican problem, leaving indefinite the nature of the instructions given to the delegates.

Armistice or No Admission

The mediators take the stand that unless an armistice is declared there will be no admission for the constitutionalists.

TO FIGHT DUMP FIRES NEW HYDRANT OFFERED

Locks and Canals Will Meet the Expense — No Celebration of Fourth—Law Changed Relative to Contagious Disease Hospital Sites

Dump fires have cost the city of Lowell a very pretty penny in the last few years and while the dumps are located on the land of the Locks & Canals, that company has never paid a cent of fire cost, but it would seem that the company has had a change of heart for it now agrees to pay $100 toward the erection of a hydrant on the First street dump.

This information was received at the office of the water department this morning where inquiries were made relative to water supply and water conditions at the present time. Commissioner Carmichael said that the $100 would not cover anything like the total cost, but he was glad, he said, that the company had made so good a start.

The pump at the upper station is pumping 3,000,000 gallons daily, while a like amount is being pumped at the lower station. The repairs are being supervised by John H. Carmichael of the Holly Pump Works, Buffalo, N. Y.

NEWS OF THE LEGISLATURE

Late Judge Pratt's Widow Denied Salary—Milk Consumers' Bill—Railroad Employees Favored

BOSTON, June 11.—In continuing its session yesterday the legislature passed a bill denying salary to the widow of Judge Pratt, who died last year. The bill was introduced by Senator Fisher and passed by a vote of 15 to 12. The amount asked for in behalf of the widow of Judge Pratt was $2,000.

Milk Consumers' Bill

The so-called "Milk Consumers' Bill," which is described as a measure for the protection of the public health and the promotion of the milk industry of the Commonwealth, was rejected by the Senate after a long debate yesterday by a vote of 15 to 12. The question was on substitution of the bill for the report of "leave to withdraw," made by the committee on agriculture and public health, sitting jointly.

The milk question is still before the Senate in another form, as that body is to take up today a motion to substitute for an adverse report of the same joint committee Senator Clark's bill, which provides that any milk producer whose permit is revoked by the local board may not ship milk elsewhere.

Safeguarding Supply for Babies

Senator Hiram made the first argument in favor of substitution of the milk consumers' bill. He said there is no reason why the bill should be rejected. The bill is a measure to safeguard the milk supply, especially for babies. He pointed out that the bill was in no way an interference with the local boards of health.

Senator Clark of North Adams opposed substitution on the ground that the bill will take away home rule and impose a burden of $50,000 on the State. "It will drive the milk producers out of the State," he said.

Senator Clark of Brockton moved the substitution of a new bill.

Senator Clifford of the Cape opposed substitution because the bill would set up the price of milk.

Senator Fitzgerald opposed substitution because he thought it unfair to take this matter out of the hands of the local boards of health.

Railroad Employees

Senator Dean of Wakefield defended the bill to give railroad employees two cents on each month. He disputed Senator Fisher's contention that this bill is unconstitutional. Senator Fisher indicated that this is regarding the rights of labor of an interstate railroad, in violation of the federal constitution. The bill was passed to be enacted by a vote of 21 to 11.

The Senate concurred with the House in the admission of the bill that it shall not be unlawful for railroads to employ men on their lines. The bill was also amended to allow the bill of Senator Burdick of East Bridgewater for a commission to investigate the judicial administration of the courts and the judges.

The first speaker in opposition to the bill to establish fees for motor trucks was Senator Lewis. He said the bill would do too much damage to the highway than the truck.

Senator Johnson said the motor truck has increased in carrying capacity and weight that it is costing the State $5000 a mile for repaving damage to the State highways.

After the Senate passed the bill to be enacted by a vote of 15 to 5, Senator Lewis was unsuccessful in his attempt to get a roll call.

Two of Gov. Walsh's vetoes—that of the bill to appropriate $25,000 for the construction of the Lowell School for Boys and that of the bill to appropriate $100,000 for improvements at the Industrial School for Boys—were sustained yesterday by the House of Representatives. The former was acted upon in the morning session.

Talks of Change by Committees

At the vote of the Industrial School bill, which was passed by a vote of 15 to 5, the House of Representatives was divided. The bill was passed by a vote of 15 to 5, the House of Representatives was divided. The bill was passed by a vote of 15 to 5, the House of Representatives was divided.

To Help Nature Shed a Bad Complexion

Beauty devotees are enthusiastic over the beautifying qualities of mercurized wax. Nothing discovered within recent years accomplishes so much, so quickly, without harm, and at so small expense. The principal reason for its wonderful merit is that it works in harmony with physiological laws. Instead of hiding complexion defects it removes them. It actually takes off the aged, faded, sallow freckled or blotchy cuticle, gently, gradually, and with no inconvenience. It is Nature's way of renewing complexion. When the natural process is retarded because of deficient circulation or impure food, mercurized wax comes to the rescue and hastens the skin shedding. The new complexion which appears is a natural one, youthful, healthy, beautiful.

Mercurized wax is a natural skin cleanser. It never irritates or burns, and it never leaves a trace of its use. It is a natural skin cleanser. LADY LOOKABOUT

When going along through country regions in steam cars or by trolley, I take great pleasure in observing the advertising sign boards that are to be seen everywhere. It is interesting to note the different methods adopted by the advertiser to catch the eye and hold the attention of passers-by. Some make the mistake of presenting too much reading matter. Others use a picture of some sort. If a firm uses the same picture in all its advertisements, it comes to mean something to the reader, but when the picture is simply a whim of the advertiser, it is valueless. I have just seen one of the road from Lowell to Boston that seems to me to be unusually good. It may be seen many times before reaching the city, and many more times within the city. The picture is a woman in a long dress, and she is looking back over her shoulder. The picture is a woman in a long dress, and she is looking back over her shoulder. FIRST TEST VOTE OF TOLLS

SENATE PASSES SIMMONS-NORRIS AMENDMENT TO REPEALER, 50 TO 24

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The Senate last night adopted the Simmons-Norris amendment qualifying the canal tolls exemption repeal bill by a vote of 50 to 24.

This was the first test vote after six weeks of debate on the repeal bill. Even the most optimistic senators who favored repeal had not expected the amendment to carry by so large a majority. It is not believed, however, that the bill itself can be put through by so great a margin.

Nine democratic senators—Ashhurst, Martin, O'Gorman, Pomeroy, Randall, Reed, Shields, Walsh and Williams—voted against the amendment. Several of these, however, are expected to vote for the repeal bill, while several republicans who supported the amendment are expected to line up against the bill.

The amendment as adopted, reads as follows:

"Provided that the passage of the act shall not be construed or held as a withdrawal of the United States from any right, the United States may have, under the treaty with Great Britain, ratified the 21st of February, 1852, or the treaty with the republic of Panama, ratified Feb. 26, 1904, or otherwise, to discriminate in favor of its vessels by exempting the vessels of the United States or its citizens from payment of tolls for passage through said canal, or as to any way affecting, impairing or affecting any right of the United States under said treaty or otherwise with the respect to the sovereignty over or the ownership, control or management of said canal and the regulation of the conditions or charges of passage."

POSTMASTER IS DEAD

BOSTON, June 11.—Postmaster R. K. Sawyer, Wellesley, died at his home in Wellesley yesterday after 10 days' illness. He was 44 years old and had lived in Wellesley for more than 40 years.

He was first appointed postmaster by President Cleveland in 1886, and was reappointed by every succeeding president.

Born in North Yarmouth, Me., where his forefathers settled shortly after 1700, he was educated in the district school and at Dartmouth College, where he graduated in 1880. He married Kimball F. Sawyer, his wife, in 1881, and lived at Dartmouth, but was obliged to discontinue his studies there because of poor health.

When he came to Wellesley, Mr. Sawyer entered the employ of Henry R. Durant, founder of Wellesley College. He served the town as a selectman in 1885 and was always active in town affairs.

Mr. Sawyer was a member of the Methodist Lodge and Parker Royal Arch Chapter, both of which he was president. He was also a member of the V. A. C. B. class of the Sunday school. The religious part of the entertainment consisted of recitations by Master Arthur Miles and Frederick Booth, chorist of the First Universalist church, violin solos by Mr. Miles, all of which added much to the evening's enjoyment. Recitations were given by Miss Florence Richards. A comic tale entitled "A Bird in Hand," by Miss Elsie Whitman, Lily Dwyer and Edith McDonald, was well received, while the living pictures, entitled "Maid of All Nations," was perhaps the chief attraction. Bazaar sweets making a most admirable background, after seeing the charming maidens from many nations, finally thinks the American girl still holds enough for her part in the entertainment.

A SIMPLE WAY TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Prevent Falling Hair and End Itching Scalp.

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about a ounce of plain common cod liver oil, and mix it with a little of any good hair oil. This is all you will need. Apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and run it evenly with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely destroy it. It is so simple, and every sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have, you will find all itching and itching gone, your hair will be soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you wash your hair, you should use a little of dandruff oil, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It makes it fall out, dandruff, dandruff, and everybody notices it.

Mr. Morse Threatened

Such a mess as some of our recently offered streets are in! The unsightly portion of Gotham street is particularly unsafe for automobiles with the thick coating of dirt. I saw one today slide across the street and on to a nearby lawn before it could be brought to a standstill. There is no street cleaner in the city, and it will sink into the road, but the hard surface of Gotham street will never absorb it. When women are granted suffrage, we will probably have a holy street commissioner who will order oil from which the objectionable dirt has been removed. Then any healthy which has a preference for any particular odor, may have its choice. I would like rose on my street. Do you not like the scent of roses, Mr. Morse?

REPAIRING ORIGINAL STAR SPANGLED BANNER

WASHINGTON, June 11.—To preserve it from disintegrating due to age the original flag that flew over Fort Mifflin at Baltimore during the war of 1812 with England is being repaired by the expert needlewoman of the government. COAL DEALERS ELECT

LOWELL MAN ON THE LIST OF VICE PRESIDENTS OF N. E. ASSOCIATION

BOSTON, June 11.—Business men were urged to give close attention to pending legislation, both state and national, by Harry F. Atwood, field secretary of the chamber of commerce of the United States, who spoke yesterday afternoon in Horticultural hall at the closing session of the New England Coal Dealers association convention.

D. F. Williams of the Hudson Coal company, Scranton Pa., also spoke at yesterday afternoon's session. About 250 were present. President W. A. Clark and ex-President George Cooper of Pittsfield discussed the question of the short weights in shipping. The former suggested the concentration of all short weight claims against railroads through one office, declaring that the railroads stand the expense of commodities they handle.

A vote was taken in favor of four suggestions from the national chamber of commerce relative to pending trust legislation; viz, that no attempt should be made by statute to forbid discrimination in the price of commodities; that the proposal to compel controllers of mine products to sell to all applicants is undesirable; that there should be no statutory prohibition of conditions of sales and leases preventing buyers or lessees from using the products of competitors; and that decisions in equity cases between the government and trusts or monopolies shall hold in private suits against the same companies.

An exhibit of up-to-date machinery for the handling of coal was opened yesterday in the exhibition hall of the building.

The following officers were elected yesterday: W. A. Clark of Northampton, president; George A. Sheldon of Greenfield, treasurer; E. G. Blodgett of Southwick, N. H., J. P. McCusker of New Haven; Elias Lyman of Burlington, Vt.; E. A. Wilson of Lowell; George E. Shaw of Pawtucket, and Lyman K. Lee of Foxcroft, Me., vice presidents; F. A. Whiting of Holyoke and George E. GOV. WALSH AT SHERBORN

EXECUTIVE CALLS WOMEN PRISONERS DAUGHTERS OF THE STATE AND IS APPLAUDED

BOSTON, June 11.—After dedicating the new Dowse Memorial library in Sherborn yesterday afternoon, Governor Walsh visited the Sherborn reformatory for women and addressed the prisoners, being the first governor to appear before the inmates of that institution in more than a score of years.

The governor urged the women to co-operate with the officials in making Sherborn the leading institution of its kind in the country. He told them that they were all daughters of Massachusetts, that the commonwealth wanted to see them get along and that he would like to pardon everyone of them if such a thing was possible.

Time and time again during his short speech the governor was applauded, and when he was leaving the inmates all stood up and cheered him for several minutes.

The scene in the chapel was a touching one. The inmates, some of them with snow white hair, sat with tears in their eyes and their heads bent forward so as to catch every word that the governor might say.

The governor had nothing but words of praise and encouragement for the women. He told them they were not at the institution wholly because they were bad but also as an example to others. He said he was not there to criticize them, but to cheer them, for he realized that there were many at liberty who were just as bad, if not worse, than those who were unfortunate enough to be confined.

At the dedication exercises, which were held in the town hall, the governor was also accorded a strenuous welcome. A holiday had been declared in the town and business was suspended during the exercises. As he entered the hall to deliver his speech the governor was cheered by more than 100 persons, who stood up to welcome him.

He spoke in the highest terms of the late Rev. Edmund S. Dowse, in whose honor the library was erected by his son, William H. Dowse of West Newton. He told how, as chaplain of the Massachusetts senate for 25 years, Mr. Dowse had won the affection of all the senators and how he impressed everyone with his high and lofty motives and earnestness of service.

After the services the townspeople held a reception to the governor outside the hall and it is estimated that he shook hands with about 500 persons.

NEW HAVEN, June 11.—The suit of Clarence L. Barber against the estate of the late J. Pierpont Morgan for $350,000 damages went to trial in the superior court yesterday before Judge Williams and a jury.

Barber's action is in connection with stock in Mexican mines, alleged to have been sold by him to Morgan. The suit is being tried in New Haven because the charter for the mine company was granted by the Connecticut legislature. In 1911, when Barber brought his suit, he attached 25,000 shares of New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad stock.

FEAR SUFFRAGETTES MAY ATTACK COL. ROOSEVELT

Activities of the Militants Have Caused the Withholding From Publication in London Date of Former President's Engagement in England

LONDON, June 11.—Fears of suffragette activities have caused the withholding from publication in London of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt's engagements during his approaching visit to England. It is known, however, that except for his lecture before the Royal Geographic society, Colonel Roosevelt at his own request will take no part in public functions while he is in London. On the other hand an extensive list of private entertainments has been arranged so that the colonel may have the opportunity of meeting prominent people whom he most desires to see.

St. Edward Grey, secretary of state for foreign affairs, is to give a luncheon in honor of Colonel Roosevelt on June 15 and on that occasion most of the leading members of the liberal party will be present. Before this, however, immediately after the arrival of Colonel Roosevelt from the continent, Mr. Page, the American ambassador, is to entertain him at lunch. The colonel is to spend the week end at Chequers court, the country residence in Buckinghamshire of Arthur Hamilton Lee, a unionist member of the house of commons, who is to be the host of the former president of the United States all the time he is in England.

While the committee has deferred consideration of the rule until after the summer recess, it has given by committee members that they would consider soon the proposed amendment to the constitution providing for a special rule in July. Discussed at Meeting of Community Held Last Night

The directors of the Greek community held a meeting last night for the purpose of discussing school matters. The meeting was held in the old school hall in Jefferson street and was presided over by Peter Tavoularis.

The school question is a very important one in the Greek colony for their parochial school, which for a number of years was conducted in the lower part of the Greek Orthodox church in Jefferson street, has been closed for some time, and it is said that the Greek children have not attended school since the board of health ordered their school closed.

The Plunkett residence in Worthen street was purchased some time ago by the community and it was the plan of the directors of the community to have the building remodeled into a school building and start operations at once. At that time, however, the Traders National bank closed its doors and inasmuch as the work was to be done through subscriptions taken up among the Greeks, the money was slow in coming in for most of the members of the colony had their money tied up at the bank.

The new directors of the community have decided to look into the school matter at once and last night it was voted to give the president, Peter Tavoularis free hand in the selection of the school board and today he will appoint four or five men to the commission and these men, who will be the most learned men of the colony, will be presented to the directors this evening at another meeting to be held at the same place. It is believed that work on the new school will be started in a couple of weeks and hurried along to have the opening of the new building for the fall term of the school.

TO MERGE ELECTRIC ROADS

Several Changes in Bill Urged— Lawyer Vahey Insists That Bill Should Protect Employees

BOSTON, June 11.—Several changes in the bill to merge the Boston Elevated, West End and Bay State street railroads with the Boston, Revere Beach & Lynn railroad into a new corporation to be known as the Commonwealth Electric Railway company were urged when the legislative committee on metropolitan affairs and street railways sitting jointly resumed its hearings today.

The alterations advocated include legislation to prevent any steam railroad from securing control of the new corporation and provision that the state should have a representative on the board of directors, that existing labor contracts should be protected and that the work of consolidation should begin in two years instead of three.

QUIMET EARLY STARTER

IN QUALIFYING ROUNDS FOR BRITISH OPEN GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP AT TROON, SCOTLAND, TODAY

TROON, Scotland, June 11.—Play opened here today in the qualifying rounds for the British open golf championship. The entries totalled 133 and among them were Francis Quimet, American open champion, Woodland Golf club, Massachusetts, John J. McDermott, former American open champion, Atlantic City, and Harold Weber, Toledo.

The British contingent included several champions and former champions, both amateur and professional, including Harry Vardon, Edward Ray, James Braid, George Duncan and J. L. Jenkins. The arrangement for the qualifying matches is that all competitors play two rounds of 18 holes each, one of the rounds on the old Troon course and the other on the Troon municipal course, both of them lying along the seashore.

The 100 players returning the best scores in the qualifying rounds are to play on June 15 and 16 in the championship itself, which will take place at Prestwick.

UNABLE TO TELL NAME EXPLODE DYNAMITE BOMB

YOUTH WHO ATTEMPTED TO ENTER ROCKEFELLER ESTATE IS SON OF WEALTHY PLANTER

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., June 11.—The youth who was arrested yesterday as he was trying to enter the Rockefeller estate at Pocantico hills was identified today as Jose Olivia, son of a wealthy farmer who has been in progress since last September. Shots were fired from the hilltops and a dynamite bomb was exploded at the mine opening as the men were going to work.

FATALLY BURNED

WOONSOCKET, R. I., June 11.—John Hackett, transit officer of this city for the past 37 years and a well known fireman, was fatally burned when a kerosene lamp exploded in his home last night. He was taken to the Woonsocket hospital and is in a critical condition.

DR. ARNOLD CRITICIZES LAWS

BOSTON, June 11.—Dr. Horace D. Arnold, dean of the graduate school of medicine at Harvard, criticized the laws of this state on medical registration at the annual meeting of the Massachusetts Medical society yesterday. "Massachusetts is one of two states that give the least protection to the public in laws on medical registration," Dr. Arnold declared. "Tennessee is the only other state with the same low basis of requirements," he added. The speaker also said that the state board of health and the legislature have been unable to give the public protection in matters of health and sanitation.

ARMED GUARDS AT FACTORY

PITTSBURGH, June 11.—Scores of pickets surrounded the Westinghouse plants in the Turtle Creek valley today while guards armed with rifles appeared at the principal entrances to the factories. Pickets were relieved every four hours because of the intense heat.

THE KASINO

It is only fair to yourself to patronize amusement resorts that afford the best. Whenever you take a chance, and go where you are uncertain as to the quality of entertainment, you have yourself alone to blame if the entertainment proves unsatisfactory.

You don't take chances when you go to the Kasino, where Miner's orchestra plays tonight under every light and on Saturday afternoon. Conditions are ideal for dancing at this resort. Situated on a hill, a cooling breeze is always in circulation.

ANOTHER ATTACK ON LOCUST GROVE MINE OF WEST VIRGINIA —SHOTS FIRED

COLLIERS, W. Va., June 11.—Another attack was made early today on the Locust Grove mine of the West Virginia and Pittsburgh Coal Co., where a strike has been in progress since last September. Shots were fired from the hilltops and a dynamite bomb was exploded at the mine opening as the men were going to work.

CITIZENS AMERICANS

Prepare for the Formal Opening of Their New Quarters in Middle Street Grand Hall Contemplated

The members of the Citizens-Americans club are making arrangements for a formal opening of their new quarters in Middle street, the former quarters of the Lowell Elks. The organization moved its things into the new place last week and in a couple of weeks the formal opening will take place and it is believed that the opening will consist of a grand ball.

At the next meeting of the club a committee will be appointed to make arrangements for the coming event and also to look into the possibility of hiring the upper floor of the building. The present quarters of the club are inadequate for the large membership and an effort will be made to secure the entire building with the exception of the street floor which is being occupied by stores.

Several new members were admitted into the club at the last meeting and the membership roll now totals more than 100 and it is the opinion of many that that number will be doubled within 12 months.

DRACUT SCHOOL WORK

On Exhibition at Grange Hall, Dracut Centre, This Afternoon and Evening

The parents and friends of the pupils of all the Dracut schools were this afternoon given a fine opportunity to inspect the work of the children done during the past school term in drawing, penmanship and manual training, and also to note the progress achieved by many of the scholars, when a most pleasing exhibit was held at Grange Hall, Dracut Centre.

The large hall was literally covered with drawings of all descriptions, among which were several difficult pieces, and a variety of copies of penmanship, as well as several substantial pieces fabricated by the children in the manual training course. The Dracut schools do not specialize on manual training, but a little of it is being done in every school and what is on exhibition today shows the ability of some of the children, especially the girls, who have in the exhibit a long list of small articles which are very useful about the house. The showing made was highly creditable to the teachers and pupils.

The exhibit is in charge of Miss Margaret Carney, supervisor of drawing in the Dracut schools, and the schools represented at the affair are as follows: Parker Avenue, Dracut Centre, Collinsville, Kenwood, Dracut, Broadway and Goodhue. This afternoon the hall opened at 2 o'clock and a large gathering was on hand to congratulate the supervisor for the success of the year's schooling, and many voted their appreciation of the work on exhibition. The hall closed at 4 o'clock and this evening it will be open from 7 to 9 to give all who were not able to attend this afternoon an opportunity to inspect the work of the children.

STRIKE CLOSES FACTORY

Rattan Factory of Heywood Bros. & Wakefield Company Was Closed Today

WAKEFIELD, June 11.—The rattan factory of the Heywood Bros. & Wakefield Co. was closed indefinitely by the managers today by a strike of more than 650 of its 1000 employees.

In a statement issued today the company officials expressed regret at the action which they felt they were obliged to take and said that the decision to close resulted from the present attitude of a large section of the employees.

Nearly eight weeks ago the weavers and trimmers' helpers struck for increased wages and employees in other departments quit in sympathy.

The strike lasted six weeks, but all the operatives returned June 1 as a result of conferences between company employees and the state board of conciliation and arbitration.

Four hundred hands affiliated with the American Federation of Labor struck two days ago because, they alleged, several workmen had been discharged on account of their activities during the previous strike. Today 200 members of the I. W. W. left their work and the company officials decided this afternoon to close the plant indefinitely.

WILD MILITANT IS ARRESTED

LONDON, June 11.—Miss Sylvia Pankhurst was not even permitted to approach Westminster last night to interview Premier Asquith.

The proposed visit to the prime minister was arranged for some days ago by Miss Pankhurst and other militant leaders, and it was decided Tuesday night that she should be carried shoulder-high in the procession as she was not considered strong enough to bear the strain of what promised to be a arduous journey.

Before the procession had gone a mile, Miss Pankhurst was arrested for the eighth time since she was sentenced to six months' imprisonment for inciting language in Hyde Park, and conveyed to Holloway jail.

The procession struggled on without a leader, but at the time it reached Strand it had been dispersed by the police.

Under the leadership of George Lansbury, former socialist member of the house of commons, a deputation of the suffragettes, for dramatic effect, a crowd of 1000 people gathered at 8 o'clock at the junction of Commercial road and High Street, Whitechapel, where two processions, one from Bow and the other from Poplar, were to join and march to the same hour.

The waiting throngs were addressed by a Rev. Mr. Willis, who offered prayer for Miss Pankhurst and by Miss Pankhurst herself, who said it might be the last time she could address them.

AT WESTMINSTER ABBEY

ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP CORONATION CHAIR WAS MADE BY MILITANT SUFFRAGETTES

LONDON, June 11.—An attempt to blow up the coronation chair, which has been in Westminster Abbey since 1296, was made this evening. The outrage is attributed by the authorities to the wild women.

The chair, generally called St. Edward's chair out of respect to Edward the Confessor, near whose shrine it stands, was made by order of King Edward I, to hold the coronation stone, or Stone of Destiny, on which the ancient Scottish kings used to sit when they were crowned. It was captured by Edward I from the Scotch.

The damage caused to the chair by today's explosion was slight. The explosive had been placed beneath it but its effect seemed to reach the chair itself, which is of solid oak covered with gilding and ornamental work. The famous old stone, however, was badly chipped.

The history of the stone, so far as is known goes back to the year 850, when it was placed in the Abbey of Scone, Perthshire, by King Kenneth of Scotland. A legend connected with it says it is the identical stone on which the biblical patriarch Jacob laid his head when he had the vision of the angels ascending and descending the ladder that reached to heaven.

The Kings of Scotland for many centuries were crowned while seated on it. The police took possession of the stone after the outrage.

The explosion occurred while Benjamin McKenna was talking on the entrance question in the house of commons. The detonation was plainly heard in the parliament house and members of the commons and the peers flocked out into parliament square to ascertain what had happened.

ing the ladder that reached to heaven. The Kings of Scotland for many centuries were crowned while seated on it. The police took possession of the stone after the outrage.

general report of the work will be forthcoming in a week or ten days. In the meantime test wells are being operated across the river in a search for an auxiliary supply.

Fourth of July Observance

What will be the city's program for the celebration of the glorious fourth for the year 1914?

Will the program include balloon ascensions, fireworks, etc?

Letters from fireworks companies are being received at city hall and several balloonists, parachutists and other kinds of airmen are anxious to give an exhibition in Lowell on July 4, but there is nothing definite for there is nothing to do with it.

The municipal council has not made any appropriation for a celebration this year and neither has any appropriation been made for Labor day. There is a bare possibility that a small sum may be taken from some other appropriation or appropriations but to do this would be out of the ordinary and a bit irregular.

Tax Book Appropriation

The failure of the municipal council to make appropriations for the proper observance of July 4 and Labor day does not mean that any ordinance has been violated, but an ordinance was violated when the council failed to make an appropriation for the printing of the tax book or lists inaugurated by ex-Alderman Dodge. The board of trade directors have taken the matter up, but it will be rather difficult for the council to do anything now as there isn't any money in sight.

The tax book should have been issued last year. The expense of getting out the book is $1500 and the assessors of taxes asked last year's government for that amount, but the council gave the assessors the marble floor. Later in the year the assessors addressed a letter to the government and they are still waiting an answer to that letter, though it was stated therein that several inquiries were made at the assessors' office for tax books and that the books should be gotten out. The ordinance having to do with the publication of the tax books reads as follows:

Beginning in the month of September, 1907, and every two years thereafter, the assessors of taxes of the city of Lowell shall cause to be printed at the expense of their department for general distribution 5000 copies of a list which shall contain the following information: Names of all personal estate taxpayers, arranged in the order of assessment by streets (together with valuation and tax); the names of all real estate taxpayers; location of real estate, arranged in numerical order by streets; valuation of buildings; valuation of land; area; valuation per foot; and tax. Approved March 20, 1909.

The assessors asked this year's government for an appropriation for the tax books and received the same treatment as was accorded them last year. They were ignored.

the paving work in Gorham street had been started this morning. There has been considerable criticism of the work in that street since it has been claimed that great speed could be acquired, but Mr. Morse says that the work has been pushed with all possible speed. He allows that it is a slow job at best but that he will get through with it as quickly as possible.

Location of Hospitals
The little incident in connection with the selection of the Pillsbury estate for a contagious hospital, which the board of health has decided to have, has not been the subject of any official action, but the reason is contained in the following act relative to the location of hospitals:

Section 1. Section 37 of chapter 75 of the revised laws, which provides that no hospital shall be established within 100 rods of an inhabited dwelling house situated in an adjoining city or town, without the consent of such city or town, is hereby repealed.

Section 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage. (Approved May 27, 1914.)

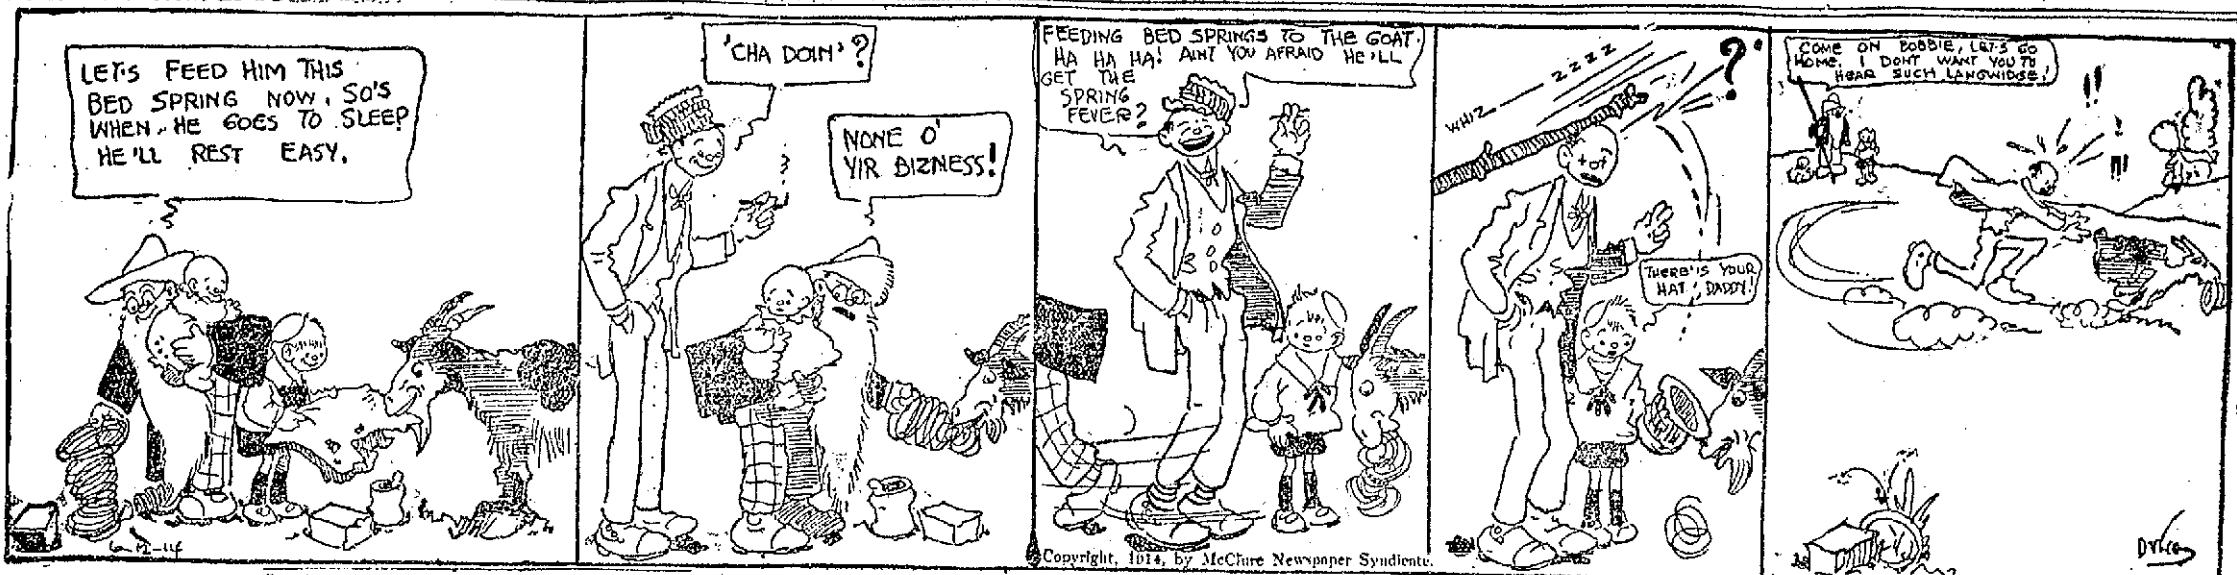

Chicken Thieves Beware
Of course we are not all chicken thieves, but most of us are fond of chickens, and a few of us keep chickens, and in order to know how far we can go in the protection of chickens or the prosecution of the fellow who gets them away from us, it is necessary to resort to the law, and the following act, a copy of which was received at the city clerk's office today, contains some information about this line:

Section 1. Whoever, with intent to commit larceny, steals or enters, or enters by or endorses or wherein are kept or confined any kind of poultry, may be detained or kept in custody in a convenient place by the owner of the poultry, or by his agent or employee, for not more than twenty-four hours.

Section 2. Whoever, with intent to commit larceny, steals or enters, or enters by or endorses or wherein are kept or confined any kind of poultry, may be detained or kept in custody in a convenient place by the owner of the poultry, or by his agent or employee, for not more than twenty-four hours.

Section 3. Whoever, with intent to commit larceny, steals or enters, or enters by or endorses or wherein are kept or confined any kind of poultry, may be detained or kept in custody in a convenient place by the owner of the poultry, or by his agent or employee, for not more than twenty-four hours.

YALE AND HARVARD VARSITY CREWS SHOW IMPROVEMENT ON EVE OF BIG BOAT RACE

Both the Yale and Harvard crews have shown marked improvement in their workouts prior to the big race on the Thames June 19. The strict English system at Yale has been abandoned in favor of an Anglo-American idea and has produced excellent results. The watermanship at both camps has of course improved with experience, although the Eli men still seem to work too hard on their catch and delivery. Donaghy, the Yale captain, may not row in the race at all, but the Cuban leader, Reynolds, forms the nucleus of his boat's reserve strength, and he will be depended on to handle the final spurt.

MURPHY AND WRENN TALK

LOCAL SWIMMERS ARE ELATED OVER OPPORTUNITY TO SETTLE TITLE

"At last I have a chance to show Podge Murphy and the other local swimmers that I can trim 'em and be here now, that is just what I am going to do," said Mike Wrenn, when asked what he thought of the race from Nashua to Lowell to be held on Sunday, June 21. Mike alleges that Murphy ducked several matches with him.

The third cup defending candidate, the Defiance, is now ready for the trial races with its rivals, the Resolute and Vanitie. The Defiance is built on chunkier lines than the other two boats and is higher out of the water. When first designed she carried a much greater area of sail space, but after a few trial spins mast and boom were cut down to accommodate less canvas.

LONDON WILDLY EXCITED

ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP
THE CORONATION CHAIR

In Westminster Abbey—Two Militants Arrested—The Act Regarded as Rank Piece of Anarchy—Chair of Great Historic Interest

LONDON, June 11.—The attempt of the militants to blow up the coronation chair or the "Stone of Scone," Westminster abbey, has excited all London more than any other outrage committed by the wild women. It is regarded as a rank piece of anarchy.

Those who were in the vicinity at the time of the explosion say they heard two distinct terrific reports.

The fabric of the abbey building is said to have been slightly damaged but as the police kept all inquirers at a distance this could not be confirmed.

Two young women who were in the abbey at the time of the explosion were taken into custody and subsequently removed in a taxicab to the police station.

The actual damage to the framework of the coronation chair appears to be confined to the blowing off of one of the phanicles at the top of the back. The bomb appears to have been introduced into the abbey in a bag, which was deposited partly beneath the seat of the chair.

PREMIER ASQUITH

Announced He Would Introduce an Amending Bill as Promised

LONDON, June 11.—Premier Asquith announced in the house of commons today his intention of introducing the promised bill to amend the Irish Home Rule bill before any further progress is made by the house of lords with the second reading of the main measure. The unionists thus have won the day with their insistent demand that he should take this action.

The lords will be free to change the amending bill as they think proper and it is generally assumed that they will insert provisions for the unconditional exclusion of Ulster from the operation of the Irish Home Rule bill and also for the protection of the Protestant minority in the rest of Ireland.

The unionists in this way will be enabled to test how far the government and the Irish nationalists are prepared to go in the direction of a compromise.

The bill, it is stated, will include only the offer of local option already made and which the Ulsterites treated with contempt.

More About Senopos

The J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Gentlemen: Our little boy, one and one-half years old, began to have a lot of blotches on his skin last winter, and, in spite of all we could do, he seemed to grow no better until finally we obtained a bottle of the new laxative, SENOPOS, and it has worked wonder. He sleeps well, eats well, and is troubled no longer with constipation.

We are glad to recommend it because we know it is good.

Yours very truly,

Constitutionalists on Way to Mexico City—Antilla Carrying Arms for Rebels Arrives at Tampico—U. S. Army May be Ordered to Mexico City—Carranza's Answer Transmitted to Mediators

WASHINGTON, June 11.—President Wilson and Secretary Bryan were in close touch by private telegraph wire today with proceedings at Niagara Falls, Ont., where the South American mediators and the Huerta and Carranza missions were seeking a way out of the diplomatic maze that delayed adjustment of Mexico's difficulties.

Statements of one of the mediators that he felt confident the obstacles would be surmounted were reflected in the assertion of Secretary Bryan that the deliberations were "proceeding satisfactorily."

Renewed military operations by the constitutionalists in their campaign toward Mexico City aroused keen interest. Results of the siege of Zacatecas by Carranza's men eagerly were awaited here after receipt of first reports that the federals were giving way in the face of better-armed and artillery

Gen. Funston's report that the constitutionalists threatened to cut railroad communication between Huerta's capital and Vera Cruz led to statements by friends of Carranza that the campaign was aimed to capture Huerta and his advisers in case they suddenly determined to quit the capital.

The constitutionalists claimed that railroad communication between Mexico City and Pacific coast points had been interrupted and at the first report of any movement by Huerta the east

Locks and Canals Will Meet the Expense—No Celebration of Fourth—Law Changed Relative to Contagious Disease Hospital Sites

Dump fires have cost the city of Lowell a very pretty penny in the last few years and while the dumps are located on the land of the Locks & Canals, that company has never paid a cent of fire cost, but it would seem that the company has had a change of heart for it now agrees to pay $100 toward the erection of a hydrant on the first street dump.

This information was received at the office of the water department this morning where inquiries were made relative to water supply and water conditions at the present time. Commissioner Carmichael said that the $100 would not cover anything like the total cost, but he was glad, he said, that the company had made so good a start.

The pump at the upper boulevard is in operation at the present time because of repairs that are being made at the lower station. The repairs are being supervised by John R. Carmichael of the Holly Dump Works, Buffalo, N. Y.

The pump at the upper station is pumping 3,000,000 gallons daily, while a like amount is being pumped at the Cook wells. It was stated today, too, that the work of renewing the old wells at the boulevard has been completed. About 155 wells have been reworked and the water, it is said, is clearer and shows a better flow.

Home Team Leads in the Fourth Inning—Matthews Put Ball Over Fence for Home Run

Rooted and spurred, with a heavy stride, on the opposite side of the Spalding park diamond from the Lowell players walked Dan Cloheey, wrapped in the deepest gloom over Jimmy Gray's defeat of his first division club in yesterday's eleven inning encounter, grumbling and rubbing unto himself and any unfortunate who happened to stray near him, Daniel was even worse tempered this afternoon than usual and that is saying a whole lot.

"It's a bear, it's a bear, it's a bear," sing-songed a fan from the third base bleachers. And indeed Cloheey looked the part. He watched his team through their batting practice with unusual care. What came Dan for a manager? Of course he may flatter Christy Wilson or some other poor ball player with the title but when it comes to a clash of wills the genial Dan has set it on the war of Russia.

"Red" or Billy or McMahon grabbed his glove and peered on to the diamond with just the same old paper that used to characterize his work up around the South common. The Lowell player is going like a house afire with the Haverhill club since relinquishing his managerial duties in Lewiston and has traced up the team to a wonderful degree. Billy is a great ball player and would be welcomed by any club in the circuit.

The Haverhill situation up to date has completely taxed the digesters. War (General) Sherman defined it on one occasion as predicted when Cloheey staped up McMahon but so far neither of them has shown any marks of conflict. The Haverhill owner is regarded as the hardest man in the league to work for and we all know that Billy's head is adorned with a thick thatch of Auburn locks so how could we do else but look for trouble? However, the season has not yet drawn to a close.

The Haverhill team acted like so many children with a new toy when they first scammed out on the local diamond. It was such a chance from the sand lot they play their home games on that we can't blame them for their demonstrations. Such a ball yard as the league is afflicted with in Haverhill ought to be barred from the circuit and would be if the New England league officials paid more attention to the work which they are paid to perform.

Today was an ideal day for a ball game from the players' point of view, although some of the bleacherites found the going kind of rough when the breeze died down. There were kinks apparent this afternoon in many of the whips which were being lashed around the park.

Lohman Wins the 100 By Spalding's bonnie banker, mild the fans' bonnie lady.

Dece, Dece tried to run with Tex. Lohman. But on the cinder path he never again will stray. With a guy quite as fast as Zeke Lohman.

"I'll run one hundred, 'ainst 10 and a hundred. And I'll bet I get there before ye."

Then Dece took the bet, and the poor guy's running yet. And he'll have no more knucks to Zeke Lohman.

And the world's record for 110 yards, made by R. Clougher at Celtic Park, New York, Sept. 5, 1910, still stands.

The game was preceded by a foot race between Cecil Dodge, the progressive sporting editor of The Sun, and Texas Lohman, the well meaning pitcher of the Lowell team. Lohman took objections to references to his running ability or disability made recently in these columns, and ventured the prediction that he could run as fast as not faster than Cecil. Evidently he judged Cecil's running ability by his showing as the progressive candidate for the legislature in the last state election rather than from his performance on the cinder path. Dodge offered to give Lohman 10 yards in 100 but Texas, like Womers, when Frank Loomis made him a similar offer several years ago, insisted that it be 10 in 110. The match was made for a ten foot, Texas holding the money and Lohman the right to do as he pleased in 110.

Then Texas went out and purchased a new running suit and a pair of spiked shoes and incidentally he went down into his trunk and produced a couple of medals that he won for racing when a youth and by means of a lavish display attempted to attract the betting and likewise send a chill into Dodge's pedal extremities. But The Sun sporting editor was informed that he would have to go through with it and that in the event of winfulness he could take a day off, without loss of pay, next Sunday, and hence he went out to the park to do or die, as the poet used to say. And he didn't.

The course was laid out from center field in to the stand. Manager Gray and Judge DeGroot held the tape and Jackson Palmer with a borrowed pistol was starter, while the players on both teams lined up at the tape to see the finish.

There was plenty of room within the grounds for the crowd that attended, despite the extra attraction.

After warming up a bit the runners got on the mark and after several false starts they got away to the crack of the pistol. Alas, that 10 yard handicap was as good as one hundred for Zeke broke the tape just five yards ahead of his competitor. It's a good bet that had the race been for 220 Cecil would have won out but it wasn't, and henceforth any guy who says that Lohman runs like a steam roller had got to show him. The time was 12 seconds. Not so bad, at that. After the excitement over the race had subsided both teams got down to the question before the house, the day's ball game with the following lineup:

Lowell
Dece, ss.
DeGroot, cf.
Burke, 3b.
Stimpson, lf.
Matthews, c.
Greenhalge, p.
Haverhill
Campbell, 2b.
Howard, 1b.
McMahon, 3b.
Boardman, 1b.
Anderson, cf.
Carzo, c.
Gaston, p.
Swapp

It looked like old times to see Jimmy Boardman at the third sack for a few years ago none of them had anything on Boardman at that corner of the diamond. Billy McMahon received a warm welcome from his Lowell friends while O'Connell, the new second baseman of the home team was looked over by many a critical eye.

DeGroot made a shift in his batting order from yesterday which perhaps was needed.

Emmie Bill Rannan was the official timekeeper and he opened prayer at the appointed hour.

First Inning
Campbell, the lead-off man fled out to Matthews in short center. Howard hit a grounder to Dece and was an easy out at the initial station. Billy I responded to the ovation extended him by local admirers and sent a single to left between Burke and Dece. The Lowell man then tried to do a little South common stuff by making a stab for second. But Dece and the ball were waiting for him and the side was out.

No runs. Lowell went right after Swapp in the first inning. Dece walked for an opener. DeGroot was there with a single to left and Sherry showing a little of the speed stuff made third on it. Burke's best offering was a grounder to McMahon forcing DeGroot at second. Dece was held at third but Burke landed on first. Burke was on his pins and stole second. Stimpson fouled to Boardman. Matthews doubled to left field scoring Dece and Burke. Greenhalge hit a hot one at McMahon who knocked it down one hand but couldn't get it first. Greenhalge stole second. Matthews, who got third on Greenhalge's hit, scored on a wild pitch while Greene went to third. Kelly went to first base leisurely, after refusing four bad ones. On an attempted double steal Greenhalge was nabbed at the plate. Gaston, McMahon and Gaston again doing the business. Three runs.

Score: Lowell, 3; Haverhill, 0.

REPAIRING ORIGINAL STAR SPANGLED BANNER

WASHINGTON, June 11.—To preserve it from disintegrating due to age the original flag that flew over Fort McHenry at Baltimore during the war of 1812 with England is being repaired by the expert needlewoman of the government. It was this flag that inspired Francis Scott Key to write "The Star Spangled Banner" in 1814, just 100 years ago, the centenary of which will be observed with an elaborate celebration at Baltimore.

COAL DEALERS ELECT

LOWELL MAN ON THE LIST OF VICE PRESIDENTS OF N. E. ASSOCIATION

BOSTON, June 11.—Business men were urged to give close attention to pending legislation, both state and national, by Harry F. Atwood, field secretary of the chamber of commerce of the United States, who spoke yesterday afternoon in Horticultural hall at the closing session of the New England Coal Dealers association convention.

D. F. Williams of the Hudson Coal company, Scranton Pa., also spoke at yesterday afternoon's session. About 250 were present. President W. A. Clark and ex-President George Cooper of Pittsfield discussed the question of the short weights in shipping. The former suggested the concentration of all short weight claims against railroads through one office, declaring that the railroads stand the expense of short weights on nearly all other commodities they handle.

A vote was taken in favor of four suggestions from the national chamber of commerce relative to pending trust legislation; viz. that no attempt should be made by statute to forbid discrimination in the prices of commodities; that the proposal to compel controllers of mine products to sell to all applicants is undesirable; that there should be no statutory prohibition of combinations of sales and leases preventing buyers or lessees from using the products of competitors; and that decisions in equity cases between the government and trusts or monopolies shall hold in private suits against the same companies.

GOV. WALSH AT SHERBORN

EXECUTIVE CALLS WOMEN PRISONERS DAUGHTERS OF THE STATE AND IS APPLAUDED

BOSTON, June 11.—After dedicating the new Dowse Memorial library in Sherborn yesterday afternoon, Governor Walsh visited the Sherborn reformatory for women and addressed the prisoners, being the first governor to appear before the inmates of that institution in more than a score of years.

The governor urged the women to co-operate with the officials in making Sherborn the leading institution of its kind in the country. He told them that they were all daughters of Massachusetts, that the commonwealth wanted to see them get along and that he would like to pardon everyone of them if such a thing was possible. Time and time again during his short speech the governor was applauded, and when he was leaving the inmates all stood up and cheered him for several minutes.

The scene in the chapel was a touching one. The inmates, some of them with snow white hair, sat with tears in their eyes and their heads bent forward so as to catch every word that the governor might say. The governor had nothing but words of praise and encouragement for the women. He told them they were not at the institution wholly because they were bad but also as an example to others. He said he was not there to criticize them, but to cheer them, for he realized that there were many at liberty who were just as bad, if not worse, than those who were unfortunately confined.

At the dedication exercises, which were held in the town hall, the governor was also accorded a strenuous welcome. A holiday had been declared in the town and business was suspended during the exercises. As he entered the hall to deliver his speech the governor was cheered by more than 1000 persons, who stood up to welcome him. He spoke in the highest terms of the late Rev. Edmund S. Dowse, in whose honor the library was erected by his son, William H. Dowse of West Newton. He told how, as chairman of the Massachusetts senate for 35 years, Mr. Dowse had won the affection of all the senators and how he impressed everyone with his high and lofty motives and earnestness of service. After the services the townspeople held a reception to the governor outside the hall, and it is estimated that he shook hands with about 500 persons.

SUES MORGAN ESTATE

NEW HAVEN, June 11.—The suit of Clarence L. Barber against the estate of the late J. Pierpont Morgan for $350,000 damages went to trial in the superior court yesterday before Judge Williams and a jury.

Barber's action is in connection with stock in Mexican mines, alleged to have been sold by him to Morgan. The suit is being tried in New Haven because the charter for the mine company was granted by the Connecticut legislature. In 1911, when Barber brought his suit, he attached 25,000 shares of New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad stock.

VANITIE AND RESOLUTE

SIXTH TRIAL RACE TODAY—DEFENSE UNABLE TO GET INTO THE RACE—VANITIE WINS

ASSOCIATED PRESS BOAT (By wireless, San Francisco, June 11.)—The cup defense candidates, Resolute and Vanitie, fought out their sixth trial race today without a third competitor. The tri-city yacht defense was unable to remedy the defects in her rigging made evident by yesterday's contest, and did not enter the trial today.

The course today was triangular, 30 miles long, over the historic America's cup waters. The sea was smooth and the wind at the start was barely five miles an hour.

In the struggle at the start to windward Resolute gained the first advantage and forced the Gardner boat to cross ahead. The preliminary jockeying lasted so long that both boats crossed the line after the two-minute handicap period. Resolute 20 seconds behind her rival.

Vanitie kept her lead as they reached along the Jersey headlands toward the first mark off Long Beach and gradually opened up a little more.

It looked like a long race and a good light weather test.

The actual time of the start was Vanitie, 11:03.57, Resolute, 11:04.17.

Vanitie had the weather position. It was just the kind of sailing the Gardner boat delights in, both boats smooth and she slid through the water easily, working out quite a bit ahead of Resolute.

Vanitie carried mainsail, clubtopsail, foresail, jib and racing jib. Resolute carried the same excepting a fore-staysail, being single head rigged.

Both yachts made good time and the Gardner boat following the race had to look up to full speed to keep near Vanitie. The wind held true about ten knots.

As Resolute continued to fall behind on the first leg, skipper Adams took in her reaching jib (topsail) and sent up a larger one. Shortly afterward Vanitie also changed her kite for a larger reaching jib. At 11:45 about three-quarters of an hour after the race began Vanitie has a lead of about three minutes and the distance between continued to increase slightly as they neared the first mark.

The wind was very light. The two yachts jibbed around the mark and with mainsails to starboard and wind abaft the beam started on the second leg. As they neared the point the Gardner yacht had a lead of two minutes and three seconds more than the

FEW CHANGES NOTED

IN PRICES TODAY—ST. PAUL FELL SLIGHTLY—U. S. STEEL GAINED

—MARKET CLOSED STEADY

NEW YORK, June 11.—With one exception, St. Paul, which fell a point early prices of today's market were mostly unchanged. U. S. Steel gained the smallest fraction and Reading and American Smelting were down about as much. Other speculative issues at first manifested no pronounced tendency but soon yielded to pressure. Trading was again light and professional. Another $1,000,000 was taken for Paris.

The decline in St. Paul, from which there was but slight recovery, was ascribed to disappointment in financial circles over the failure of the new bonds to be more readily absorbed. This was regarded as indicating an unsatisfactory investment situation. The movement all through the morning session was extremely apathetic with some buying on recessions. Tobacco specialties were inclined to drop. Such discussion as bore upon the market dealt almost entirely with the freight rate situation now before the interstate commerce commission, which it was authoritatively declared is sure to be announced by the end of the month. Bonds were steady.

With business on a steadily diminishing scale, prices rallied from the level in the early afternoon. Heaviness in Rock Island, which was associated with another meeting of the committee engaged in the reorganization of the property. Gold engagements for Europe continue with demand sterling at its recent high rate. Diversion of the gold movement to London, although there are no indications that the Paris demand has yet been satisfied.

The market closed heavy. Reactionary tendencies were displayed today because of the abundance of orders to buy pending the freight rate decision and the unusual growth of the gold export movement.

time allowance which she gives Resolute over a 30-mile course.

The yachts reached away through the haze near the Long Island shore in a breeze of hardly more than six or seven knots.

Vanitie, still leading by a good margin, rounded the second mark at 1:32.22. Resolute rounded the mark at 1:34.28.

Rounding the second mark the two yachts stood away on the starboard tack after setting baby jib topsails. On the second half of the second leg Resolute picked up a favorable slant of air and was able to cut down her rival's lead so that she was only two minutes and three seconds behind Vanitie at the second turn.

The yachts made a pretty race to windward toward the finishing line. Vanitie picked up a favorable weather quarter and led by a small margin when both boats came about on the starboard tack at 2:03 o'clock. But after a very short board to port Vanitie came about again and Resolute crossed her bow and took the lead.

The Hershlag yacht's weather quarter and led by a small margin when both boats came about on the starboard tack at 2:03 o'clock. But after a very short board to port Vanitie came about again and Resolute crossed her bow and took the lead.

END OF LONG FIGHT

ON PANAMA CANAL TOLLS EXEMPTION REPEAL BILL IS THOUGHT TO BE ON HAND

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The end of the long fight over the Panama Canal tolls exemption repeal bill was thought to be on hand.

Measures to be in hand when the senate took up consideration of the bill, which was introduced by the House on May 1, were thought to be on hand.

With the adoption of the so-called Simmons-Norris amendment and the rejection of the Sutherland and Cummins amendments, it was believed that the bill had been paved for a final disposition of the measure.

Leaders of the repeal forces renewed today their predictions that the bill would pass with a safe majority.

The last stage in the most spectacular fight congress has seen since the passage of the tariff act of 1890, attracted hundreds to the Capitol despite the sweltering heat and packed the senate galleries. Members of the house crowded upon the floor. Senators of the opposition, both republicans and democrats, were making no apparent effort to delay a vote but many had various qualifications and reservations upon which they intended to force record roll calls.

Administration leaders reiterated that they had the votes to hold the measure intact as it now stands.

The third principal achievement of the repeal administration, the leaders looking back on the passage of the tariff and currency acts as the others, were sure of the concurrence of the house in the compromise amendment and its acceptance by President Wilson. While the president preferred that the repeal be passed without the amendments, he said that he did not feel that the repeal in its amended form would be a success.

Amendments had granted his request to congress in "ungrudging measure" no doubt was expressed in administration circles that he would sign the perfected bill.

In debate today reminders of the acid charges of relations between the repeal and the foreign policy of the United States were missing and many observers looked upon the fight as drawing to a close as one of the most bitter contests within the democratic party.

Senator Root returned to his seat today to vote for the repeal. Senator Lodge, who had been absent, also returned to his seat.

The democratic side Senators O'Gorman and Chamberlain, leading the fight against the repeal were watching the proceedings closely to force record votes on all the amendments.

MURDER TRIAL

Delayed by the Disappearance of the Victim's Underclothing

BOSTON, June 11.—The disappearance of a set of underwear which was believed to have been used as evidence caused a temporary delay yesterday afternoon in the trial of Mrs. Anna Catania, who is charged with first degree murder in connection with the death of Agrippina Capra in Chelsea, Oct. 3, 1913. The trial was continued today.

The underclothes worn by Capra were believed to have been in the care of the North Grove street morgue. T. H. Kingston and E. L. Green, superintendent and assistant superintendent, respectively, of the mortuary, testified that they did not have the garments, and that they are missing. They said it was customary to preserve all such clothing.

Assistant District Attorney Lavelle is conducting the case against Mrs. Catania, who is being defended by Maurice Karo. In his opening address to the jury Mr. Lavelle said he would try to show that there was a conspiracy between Mrs. Catania and her husband, Joseph Catania, who disappeared after the alleged murder, to kill Capra.

Interest in Judge Chase's courtroom, where the case is being tried, centered upon Mrs. Catania, who is a young woman 25 years old. She is rather attractive looking, a typical dark-eyed, dark-haired Italian. In spite of her long stay in jail her cheeks were rosy, and she

On Exhibition at Grange Hall,
Dracut Centre, This Afternoon
and Evening

The parents and friends of the pupils of all the Dracut schools were this afternoon given a fine opportunity to inspect the work of the children done during the past school term in drawing, penmanship and manual training, and also to note the progress achieved by many of the scholars, when a most pleasing exhibit was held at Grange hall, Dracut Centre.

The large hall was literally covered with drawings of all descriptions, among which were several difficult pieces, and a variety of penmanship, as well as several substantial pieces fabricated by the children in the manual training course. The Dracut schools do not specialize on manual training, but a little of it is being done in every school and what is on exhibition today shows the ability of some of the children, especially the girls, who have in the exhibit a long list of small articles which are very useful about the house. The showing made was highly creditable to the teachers and pupils.

The exhibit is in charge of Miss Margaret Carney, supervisor of drawing in the Dracut schools, and the schools represented at the affair are as follows: Parker Avenue, Dracut Centre, Collinsville, Kenwood, Dracut, Broadway and Goodhue. This afternoon the hall opened at 2 o'clock and a large gathering was on hand to congratulate the supervisor for the success of the year's schooling, and many voiced their appreciation of the work on exhibition. The hall closed at 4 o'clock and this evening it will be open from 7 to 9 to give all who were unable to attend this afternoon an opportunity to inspect the work of the children.

STRIKE CLOSES FACTORY

Rattan Factory of Heywood Bros.
& Wakefield Company Was Closed Today

WAKEFIELD, June 11.—The rattan factory of the Heywood Bros. & Wakefield Co. was closed indefinitely by the managers today by a strike of more than 650 of its 1000 employees.

In a statement issued today the company officials expressed regret at the action which they felt they were obliged to take and said that the decision to close resulted from the persistent attitude of a large section of the employees.

Nearly eight weeks ago the weavers and teamsters' helpers struck for increased wages and employees in other departments quit in sympathy. The strike lasted six weeks, but all the operatives returned June 1 as a result of conferences between company, employees and the state board of conciliation and arbitration.

Four hundred hands affiliated with the American Federation of Labor struck two days ago because, they alleged, several workmen had been discharged on account of their activities during the previous strike. Today 250 members of the I. W. W. left their work and the company officials decided this afternoon to close the plant indefinitely.

WILD MILITANT IS ARRESTED

LONDON, June 11.—Miss Sylvia Pankhurst was not even permitted to approach Westminster last night to interview Premier Asquith.

The proposed visit to the prime minister was arranged for some days ago by Miss Pankhurst and other militant leaders, and it was decided Tuesday night that she should be carried shoulder-high in the procession as she was not considered strong enough to bear the strain of what promised to be an arduous journey.

Before the procession had gone a mile, Miss Pankhurst was arrested for the eighth time since she was sentenced to six months' imprisonment for inciting language in Hyde Park, and conveyed to Holloway jail.

The procession struggled on without a leader, but by the time it reached the Strand it had been dispersed by the police.

The leadership of George Lansbury, former socialist member of the house of commons, a deputation of women proceeded to parliament where they were received by P. H. Hingworth, the chief liberal whip, after having been rebuffed in all attempts.

The deputation was organized with all the well known cleverness of the suffragettes for dramatic effect. A crowd of 10,000 people gathered at 8 o'clock at the junction of Commercial road and High street, Whitechapel, where two processions, one from Bow and the other from Finsbury, were to join about the same hour.

The waiting throngs were addressed by a Rev. Mr. Willis, who offered prayer for Miss Pankhurst and by Miss Pankhurst herself, who said it might be the last time she could address them.

AT WESTMINSTER ABBEY

ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP CORONATION CHAIR WAS MADE BY MILITANT SUFFRAGETTES

LONDON, June 11.—An attempt to blow up the coronation chair, which has been in Westminster Abbey since 1296, was made this evening. The outrage is attributed by the authorities to the militant women.

The chair, generally called St. Edward's chair out of respect to Edward the Confessor, near whose shrine it stands, was made by order of King Edward I. to hold the coronation stone, or Stone of Destiny, on which the ancient Scottish kings used to sit when they were crowned. It was captured by Edward I from the Scotch.

The damage caused to the chair by today's explosion was slight. The explosive had been placed beneath it, but its effects seemed not to reach the chair itself, which is of solid oak covered with gilding and ornamental work. The famous old stone, however, was badly chipped.

The history of the stone, so far as is known goes back to the year 850, when it was placed in the Abbey of Iona, Perthshire, by King Kenneth of Scotland. A legend connected with it says it is the identical stone on which the biblical patriarch Jacob laid his head when he had the vision of the angels ascending and descending the ladder that reached to heaven. The Kings of Scotland for many centuries were crowned while seated on it. The police took possession of the abbey after the entrance.

The explosion occurred while Benjamin McKenna was talking on the suffragette question in the house of commons. The detonation was plainly heard in the parliament house and members of the commons and the peers flocked out into parliament square to ascertain what had happened.

TO FIGHT DUMP FIRE

Continued

General report of the work will be forthcoming in a week or ten days. In the meantime test wells are being operated across the river in a search for an auxiliary supply.

Fourth of July Observance

What will be the city's program for the celebration of the glorious fourth for the year 1914?

Will the program include balloon ascensions, fireworks, etc.?

Let's see. From fireworks companies are being solicited at city hall and several balloonists, parachute and other kinds of airmen are anxious to give an exhibition in Lowell on July 4, but there'll be nothing doing for there is nothing to do with.

The municipal council has not made any appropriation for a celebration this year and neither has any appropriation been made for Labor day. There is a bare possibility that a small sum may be taken from some other appropriation or appropriations but to do this would be out of the ordinary and a bit irregular.

Tax Book Appropriation

The failure of the municipal council to make appropriations for the proper observance of July 4 and Labor day does not mean that any ordinance has been violated, but an ordinance was violated when the council failed to make an appropriation for the printing of the tax book or list of assessors by ex-Alderman Dodge. The board of trade directors have taken the matter up, but it will be rather difficult for the council to do anything now as there isn't any money in sight. The tax book should have been issued last year. The expense of getting out the book is $1500 and the assessors of taxes asked last year's government for that amount, but the council gave the assessors the merry heart. Later in the year the assessors addressed a letter to the government and they are still waiting an answer to that letter, though it was stated therein that several inquiries were made at the assessors' office for tax books and that the books should be gotten out. The ordinance having to do with the publication of the tax books reads as follows:

Beginning in the month of September, 1907, and every two years thereafter, the assessors of taxes of the city of Lowell shall cause to be printed at the expense of their department for general distribution 5000 copies of a list which shall contain the following information: Names of all personal estate taxpayers, arranged in the order of assessment by streets together with valuation and tax; the names of all real estate taxpayers; location of real estate, arranged in numerical order by streets; valuation of buildings; valuation of land; area; valuation per foot; and tax. Approved March 29, 1906.

The assessors asked this year's government for an appropriation for the tax books and received the same treatment as was accorded them last year. They were ignored.

Paving Work Started
Alderman Morse gave out today that the paving work in Gorham street had been started this morning. There has been considerable criticism of the work in that street thus far. It has been claimed that great speed could be acquired, but Mr. Morse says that the work has been pushed with all possible speed. It allows that it is a slow job at best but that he will get through with it as quickly as possible.

Location of Hospitals
The little incident in connection with the selection of the Pillsbury estate for a contagious hospital whereby the Dracut authorities were appealed to may be responsible for the repeat of a selection of the revised laws, notice of which was received at the city clerk's office today. When the parties opposed to the use of the Pillsbury estate for a contagious hospital were setting up their defense they discovered that the site could not be selected if the Dracut authorities objected and proper objection was offered from the Dracut authorities.

The status of the contagious hospital proposition in Lowell is just where it was in the beginning, and if the question ever comes again on the selection of the Pillsbury estate, the Dracut authorities will not have a word to say about it, and the reason is contained in the following act relative to the location of hospitals:

Section 1. Section 37 of chapter 75 of the revised laws, which provides that no hospital shall be established within the rods of an inhabited dwelling house situated in an adjoining city or town, without the consent of such city or town, is hereby repealed.

LOWELL HIGH VS. LAWRENCE

Local School Boys Faced Down-river Rivals in Season's Big Game

Both Teams Confident of a Win and a Large Crowd Was Present

Lowell High and Lawrence High lined up this afternoon at Riverside park in Lawrence for the big game between these two high schools, this contest being the climax of the baseball season of both teams.

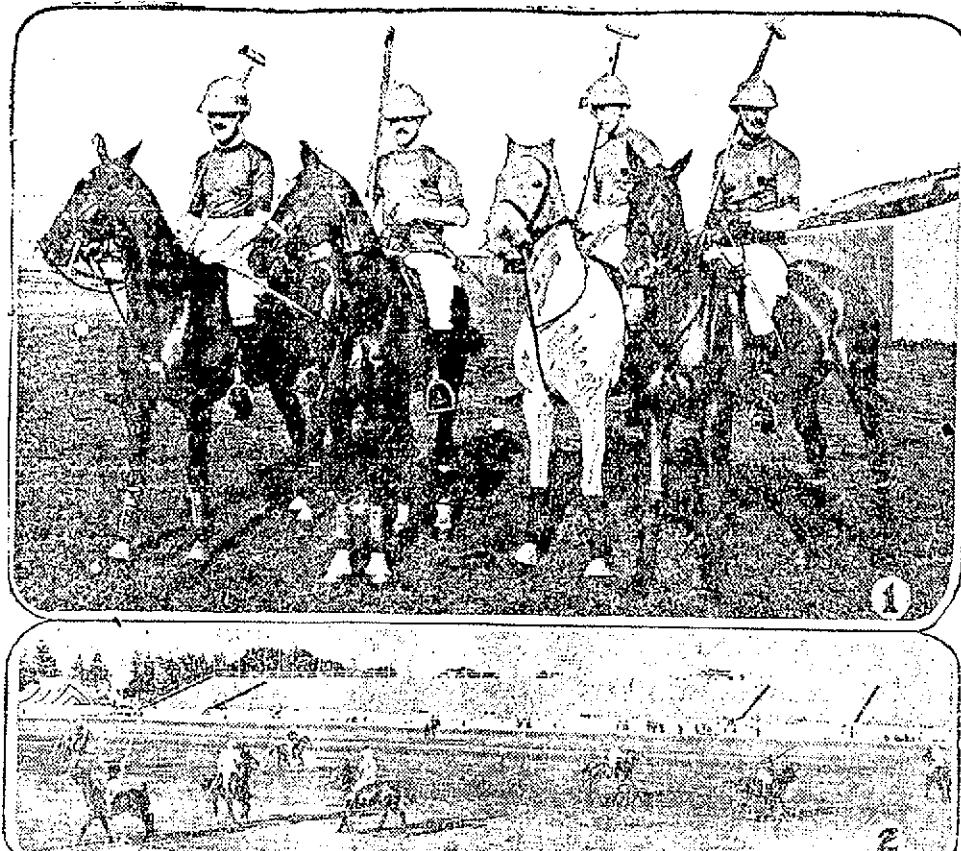

There is always a great deal of rivalry between Lawrence High and Lowell and today's game proved no exception to the rule. Although neither school's diamond representatives have excelled this season in the schoolboy athletic world the teams appeared to be fairly matched and this fact helped the attendance to a great extent.

Captain Steve Green felt confident of a victory although he and his men were playing on a strange diamond while the Lawrence boys knew every bound on its surface. The home team seemed to be as certain of success as was the local team and the work of both clubs in their preliminary work was fast and snappy.

FINAL SHIFT MADE IN LINEUP OF BRITISH POLO TEAM ON EVE OF MATCH

1-ENGLISH POLO TEAM. 2-PRACTICE GAME BEFORE BIG MATCH.

The English polo team made a final shift on the eve of the international match and went into the fray lined up as follows: Captain Tompkinson, Captain Lockett, Captain Cheape and Captain Barrett. John Trull, the great Irish back, was unable to get into condition and gave way to Lockett at the last moment. The pictures show the team lined up and a short practice before the match.

LOWELL WON GAME 5-4

Haverhill Beaten in Their Cigar Box After Eleven Strenuous Innings of Play

(Special to The Sun)

HAVERHILL, June 11.—Lowell won their second extra inning game from Haverhill this season, yesterday afternoon, by the score of 5 to 4. Both clubs used three pitchers but it was the local errors that gave the visitors the game even after it had gone into extra sessions.

Orcutt, a new man, played second base for the visitors and it was his hit off Southern in the 11th that opened things up. The youngster stole second and scored when Mulvey, who was the chief pitcher of the afternoon, let an easy grounder from Burke shoot through his legs to left field.

All told, the local piled up nine errors which was two more than the Haverhill boys made in the game. The Lowell pitcher was hit from the start and Haverhill did not have much of a ball but was using his head with considerable success. Jimmy Gray was the first to make a change. In the fifth when Anderson hit and Haverhill and Campbell were hit passed, Weaver was sent in for Shunk but the local managed to push over a tally.

Haverhill had already scored two runs in the opening session, Flaherty scoring one with a double, and Dugan hit a home run on an infield hit that he beat to first, drawing a lead throw from Shunk. Lowell scored a single run in the second on an error by Campbell, a hit by Matthews and a holdover error which cost Matthews his life at second.

Two runnings led the score in the sixth on errors by Campbell, Flaherty and Mulvey and a wild pitch by Haverhill. In the seventh Haverhill was called upon to pitch. In this inning Campbell and Shunk were responsible for the run that led to the last and scored when Flaherty singled and the game was tied to again and remained so until the 11th.

In the 11th, when Weaver and Dugan hit in succession, Flaherty was called upon and with Flaherty's plucky work at the plate was able to keep the visit from scoring. In the last half of this inning, when Anderson walked, Southern came back, King took Weaver's place and a wonderful catch by Matthews ended the game. Lowell had scored in the 11th and the game was tied to again and remained so until the 11th.

ATHLETES AND ATHLETICS

So far as is known yesterday produced a new record in the New England League. Four games played, all overtimes, with a total of 49 innings in something that was never heard of in the "little old league" before. The teams may show the effect of their strenuous performances in their work today.

The boxing game came very near to being wiped out in a few days ago, but the referees of the mitt game are now hopeful of success in retaining the license of the various boxing clubs. With ten votes of the city council necessary to outlaw the game, the nine ballots were cast against it with one member missing. Reports say that the missing member is a friend of Tom McGarry, the promoter, however, and if this be so, his vote will probably not be bad news to the scrappers.

Carl Morris is in a very serious condition from the foul blow inflicted upon him by Jim Flynn in their bout the other night. Morris had Flynn all but out when the foul occurred, the Pueblo man having just arisen for the third time. Flynn has been held pending the recovery of his white hope antagonist.

Harry Aubrey tied up the game for Lawrence yesterday and then went out in the 14th inning and won it with his single. The ex-Lowell captain played a wonderful game around the bag as well and received a great hand on several occasions.

Big Bill Temple connected for a brace of safeties again yesterday in the game he pitched against Fitchburg. Baum, another pitcher, playing the outfield, also got two blows.

Pete Wood was in town last night. He has been let go by the Worcester club for that same old trouble—lack of control. Patsy Flaherty has signed him up without preamble and Wood will work against Lowell, in all probability, in one of the games at Lynn Saturday when the local team plays a scheduled double header.

It's pretty tough for a team to lose a game after pounding out 18 hits and making but a single misplay but that is what happened to Harvard yesterday in the Holy Cross game. The Worcester collegians collected but seven hits and made three errors but bagged the contest in ten innings by a 7-6 score.

LEG BROKEN BASE SLIDING

Paul Speraw, Former Infield Candidate for Lowell Team, Injured

Had Played Sensational Ball for Brockton in Colonial League

PAUL SPERAW, Former Lowell Infielder, Broke Leg at Brockton Ball Park.

Local fans will be sorry to hear that Paul Speraw, the youngster whom Manager Gray tried out for an infield berth at the beginning of the season and who later was sent to Brockton of the Colonial league, had his right leg broken yesterday.

Speraw was sliding to third base during practice and in some way got his leg caught under him and the bone snapped. The youngster was carried from the field by his teammates and sent to a hospital.

The youngster was the sensation of the Colonial league in the field and has been hitting the ball hard of late. His fielding was so clever that many critics prophesied that he would not be playing minor league ball next year. Speraw will probably be out of the game for the remainder of the season.

Oh, you old jimmy pipe!

"Lead me to it" say men in all walks of life, since they've found out that Prince Albert tobacco can't bite the tongue and can't parch the throat.

"Lead me to it" you'll say just as quick as you invest in a tidy red tin and find out first-hand just how good P. A. is as a pipe or cigarette tobacco!

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

brought thousands and thousands of old jimmy pipes out of the garrets. It has revolutionized pipe and cigarette smoking!

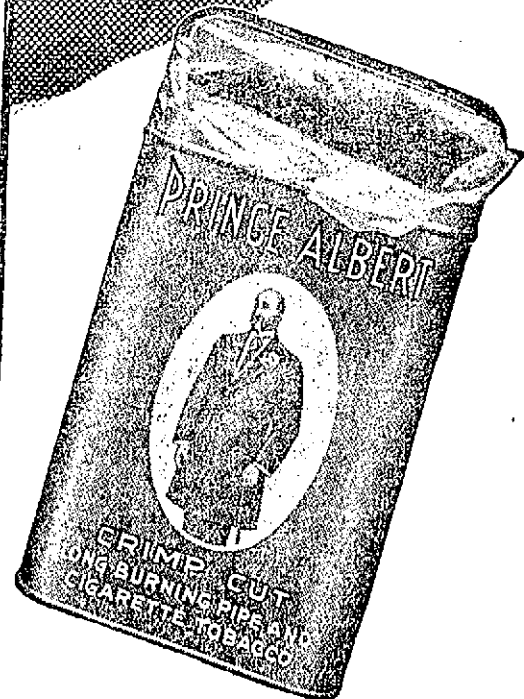

That's because Prince Albert is made by a patented process that cuts out the "grouch" and just lets in the sunshine! Never in your life have you hit such flavor and fragrance and freshness!

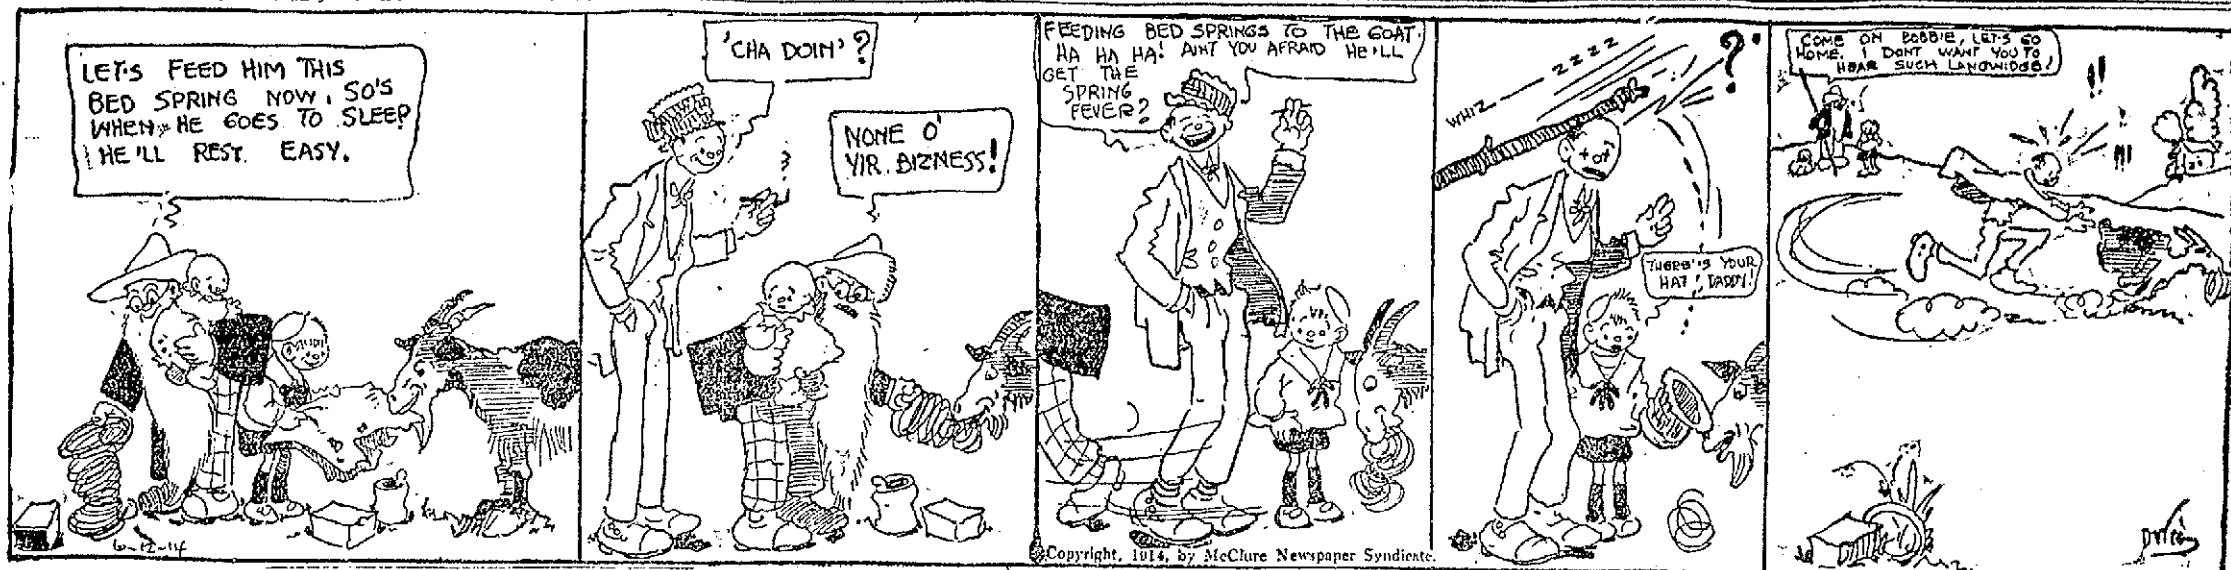

Play P. A. in a jimmy pipe or roll up the corkingest makin's cigarette you ever put fire to. It's all one and the same thing—just good for what ails your smokappetite! And it rolls up so dead easy. Being mighty fresh, it just stays put and doesn't blow away or run away like the dust-brands.

And, you know, today's the day!

Buy Prince Albert everywhere. Toppay red bags, 5c; tidy red tins, 10c; also handsome pound and half-pound humidor.

YALE AND HARVARD VARSITY CREWS SHOW IMPROVEMENT ON EVE OF BIG BOAT RACE

Both the Yale and Harvard crews have shown marked improvement in their workouts prior to the big race on the Thames June 19. The strict English system at Yale has been abandoned in favor of an Anglo-American idea and has produced excellent results. The watermanship at both camps has of course improved with experience, although the Eli men still seem to work too hard on their catch and delivery. Denege, the Yale captain, may not row in the race at all, but the Crimson leader, Reynolds, forms the nucleus of his boat's reserve strength, and he will be depended on to handle the final spurt.

MURPHY AND WRENN TALK

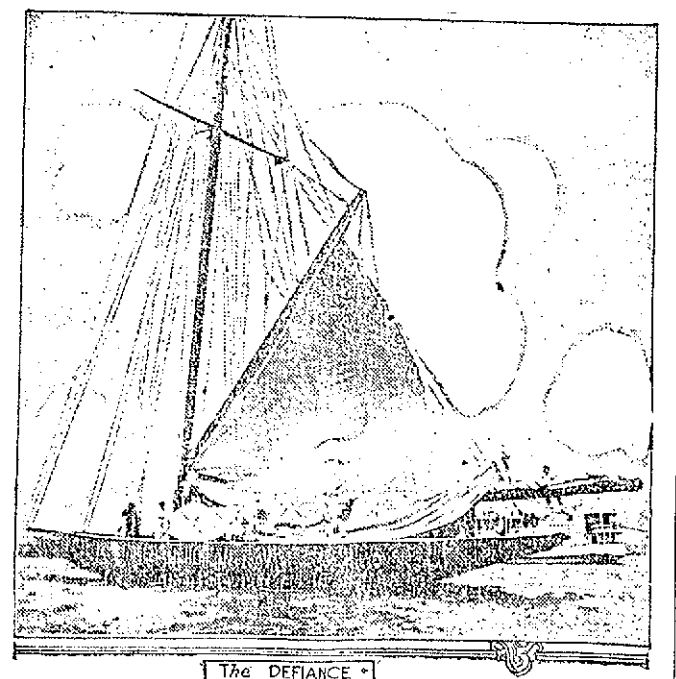

LOCAL SWIMMERS TO ELATE OVER OPPORTUNITY TO SET TITLE

"At last I have a chance to show Podge Murphy and the other local swimmers that I can trim 'em and believe me, that is just what I am going to do," said Mike Wrenn, when asked what he thought of the race from Nashua to Lowell to be held on Sunday, June 21. Mike alleges that Murphy ducked several matches with him.

DEFIANCE, THIRD CUP DEFENDER, IS BUILT ON ODD LINES

The third cup defending candidate, the Defiance, is now ready for the trial races with its rivals, the Resolute and Vanitie. The Defiance is built on chunkier lines than the other two boats and is higher out of the water. When first designed she carried a much greater area of sail space, but after a few trial spins mast and boom were cut down to accommodate less canvas.

REPAIRING ORIGINAL STAR SPANGLED BANNER

WASHINGTON, June 11.—To preserve it from disintegrating due to age the original flag that flew over Fort Mifflin at Baltimore during the war of 1812 with England is being repaired by the expert needlewoman of the government. It was this flag that inspired Francis Scott Key to write "The Star Spangled Banner" in 1814, just 100 years ago, the centenary of which will be observed with an elaborate celebration at Baltimore.

COAL DEALERS ELECT

LOWELL MAN ON THE LIST OF VICE PRESIDENTS OF N. E. ASSOCIATION

BOSTON, June 11.—Business men were urged to give close attention to pending legislation, both state and national, by Harry F. Atwood, field secretary of the chamber of commerce of the United States, who spoke yesterday afternoon in Horticultural hall at the closing session of the New England Coal Dealers association convention.

D. F. Williams of the Hudson Coal

company, Scranton Pa., also spoke at yesterday afternoon's session. About 250 were present. President W. A. Clark and ex-President George Cooper of Pittsfield discussed the question of the short weights in shipping. The former suggested the concentration of all short weight claims against railroads through one office, declaring that the railroads stand the expense of short weights on nearly all other commodities they handle.

A vote was taken in favor of four suggestions from the national chamber of commerce relative to pending trust legislation: viz. that no attempt should be made by statute to forbid discrimination in the prices of commodities; that the proposal to compel controllers of mine products to sell to all applicants is undesirable; that there should be no statutory prohibition of conditions of sales and leases preventing buyers or lessees from using the products of competitors; and that decisions in equity cases between the government and trusts or monopolies shall hold in private suits against the same companies.

An exhibit of up-to-date machinery for the handling of coal was opened yesterday in the exhibition hall of the building.

The following officers were elected yesterday: W. A. Clark of Northampton, president; George A. Sheldon of Greenfield, treasurer; F. G. Woodgett of Suncook, N. H.; J. F. McCusker of New Haven; Elias Lyman of Burlington, Vt.; E. A. Wilson of Lowell; George E. Shaw of Pawtucket, and Lyman K. Lee of Foxcroft, Me., vice presidents; F. A. Whiting of Holyoke and George E. Copeland of Worcester, executive committee.

withdrawal of the kaiser's objections to her morganatic marriage to Prince Oscar, the fifth son of the emperor of Germany. The kaiser at first strongly opposed the alliance and threatened to banish Prince Oscar.

GOV. WALSH AT SHERBORN

EXECUTIVE CALLS WOMEN PRISONERS DAUGHTERS OF THE STATE AND IS APPLAUDED

BOSTON, June 11.—After dedicating the new Dowse Memorial Library in Sherborn yesterday afternoon, Governor Walsh visited the Sherborn reformatory for women and addressed the prisoners, being the first governor to appear before the inmates of that institution in more than a score of years.

The governor urged the women to co-operate with the officials in making Sherborn the leading institution of its kind in the country. He told them that they were all daughters of Massachusetts, that the commonwealth wanted to see them get along and that he would like to pardon everyone of them if such a thing was possible.

Time and time again during his short speech the governor was applauded, and when he was leaving the inmates all stood up and cheered him for several minutes.

The scene in the chapel was a touching one. The inmates, some of them with snow white hair, sat with tears in their eyes and their hands bent forward so as to catch every word that the governor might say.

The governor had nothing but words of praise and encouragement for the women. He told them they were not at the institution wholly because they were bad but also as an example to others. He said he was not there to criticize them, but to cheer them, for he realized that there were many at liberty who were just as bad, if not worse, than those who were incarcerated enough to be confined.

At the dedication exercises, which were held in the town hall, the governor was also accorded a strenuous welcome. A holiday had been declared in the town and business was suspended during the exercises. As he entered the hall to deliver his speech the governor was cheered by more than 1000 persons who stood up to welcome him.

He spoke in the highest terms of the late Rev. Edmund S. Dowse, in whose honor the library was erected by his son, William H. Dowse of West Newton. He told how, as chaplain of the Massachusetts senate for 25 years, Mr. Dowse had won the affection of all the senators and how he impressed everyone with his high and lofty motives and a earnestness of service.

After the services the townspeople held a reception to the governor outside the hall, and it is estimated that he shook hands with about 500 persons.

$350,000 damages went to trial in the superior court yesterday before Judge Williams and a jury.

Barber's action is in connection with stock in Mexican mines, alleged to have been sold by him to Morgan. The suit is being tried in New Haven because the charter for the mine company was granted by the Connecticut legislature. In 1911, when Barber brought his suit, he attached 25,000 shares of New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad stock.

is not likely to be found doing "big things."

To succeed nowadays one must be wide awake daytimes and sleep soundly at night.

Coffee, on account of its drug, caffeine, keeps many people awake nights and makes them dozy in the daytime, when they should be keen and alert.

If you have any ambition to "make good" try quitting coffee and using

POSTUM

Made of whole wheat and a bit of molasses, Postum contains no coffee, caffeine, or other harmful substance, but does contain the nutritious food elements of the grain.

Wholesome—Nourishing—Delicious!

Postum comes in two forms:

Regular Postum—well boiled, yields a delightful flavour. 15c and 25c packages.

Instant Postum—a soluble powder. Made in the cup. No boiling required. 30c and 50c tins.

The cost per cup of both kinds is about the same.

FEW CHANGES NOTED

IN PRICES TODAY—ST. PAUL FELL

SLIGHTLY—U. S. STEEL GAINED

MARKET CLOSED STEADY

NEW YORK, June 11.—With one exception, St. Paul, which fell a point early in the morning, the market was mostly unchanged. U. S. Steel gained the smallest fraction and Reading and American Smelting were down about as much. Other speculative issues at first manifested no pronounced tendency but soon yielded to pressure. Trading was again light and professional. Another $1,000,000 was taken for Paris.

The decline in St. Paul, from which there was but slight recovery, was ascribed to disappointment in financial circles over the failure of the new bonds to be more readily absorbed. This was regarded as indicating an unsatisfactory investment situation. The movement all through the morning session was extremely apathetic with some buying on recessions. Tobacco specialties were inclined to drop. Such discussion as there was on the market dealt almost entirely with the freight rate situation now before the interstate commerce commission which it was authoritatively declared is sure to be announced by the end of the month. Bonds were steady.

With business on a steadily diminishing scale, prices rallied from the low level in the early afternoon. Heaviness in Rock Island bonds was associated with another meeting of the committee engaged in the reorganization of the property. Gold engagements for Europe continue with demand sterling at its recent high rate. Students of the situation look for a diversion of the gold movement to London, although there are no indications that the Paris demand has yet been satisfied.

The market closed heavy. Reactionary tendencies were displayed today because of the reluctance of traders to buy pending the freight rate decision and the unusual growth of the gold export movement.

MURDER TRIAL BLUE SKY LAW

Delayed by the Disappearance of Victim's Underclothing

BOSTON, June 11.—The disappearance of a set of underwear which was to have been used as evidence caused a temporary delay yesterday afternoon in the trial of Mrs. Anna Catania, who is charged with the death of Agrippina Capra in Chelsea, Oct. 3, 1913. The trial was continued today.

The underclothing worn by Capra were believed to have been in the care of the North Grove street morgue. T. H. Kingston and P. L. Green, superintendent and assistant superintendent, respectively, of the morgue, testified that they did not have the garments, and that they are missing. They said it was customary to preserve all such clothing.

Assistant District Attorney Lavelle is conducting the case against Mrs. Catania, who is being defended by Maurice Karo. In his opening address to the jury Mr. Lavelle said he would try to show that there was a conspiracy between Mrs. Catania and her husband, Joseph Catania, who disappeared after the alleged murder, to kill Capra.

Interest in Judge Chase's courtroom, where the case is being tried, centered upon Mrs. Catania, who is a young woman 25 years old. She is rather attractive looking, a typical dark-eyed, dark-haired Italian. In spite of her long stay in jail her cheeks were rosy, and she appeared to take keen interest in the proceedings, seemingly perfectly at ease.

Following the selection of the jury, the jurors, accompanied by the attorneys in the case, were taken to the scene of the alleged crime.

FIRE ON BRIDGE

Blaze Threatened the Lundberg St. Bridge This Afternoon

Fire, which probably started from a spark from a passing locomotive, threatened to destroy the Lundberg street bridge shortly after noon today, but the progress of the blaze was checked after two planes had been flown over the bridge and when the first floor of the bridge and when the first floor arrived was blazing briskly. However, it was extinguished in good time and the bridge was soon open for traffic again.

TEXTILE PLAYGROUNDS

SUIT, KERNAN HAS SECURED PERMIT FOR USE OF THE TEXTILE SCHOOL GROUNDS

John W. Kernan, superintendent of the park department held a long conference yesterday afternoon with Jas. Smith, clerk of the board of trustees of the Lowell Textile school in relation to a playground on the textile campus in Moody and Riverside streets. The two men went over the grounds and picked out a fairly large tract which will be converted into a playground for the summer season. The place will open on the same day as the other playgrounds and will be kept open for children of that district in the afternoon only.

A gang of men of the park department are busy putting Tyler park in shape. Some of them are mowing the lawn, while others are trimming the shrubbery and trees. Another gang is also at work at Fort Hill park.

The grounds surrounding the Highland house in Pringle street have been put in shape. The lawn has been mowed and the tennis court placed in good condition and the appearance of the club surroundings are now most beautiful.

HIGH COURT SUSPENDS

JUDGE FOX TO ATTEND FUNERAL OF JUDGE SHERMAN—HIGGINS PAGE CASE

As the evidence in the case of Julia Higgins, administratrix vs. the D. L. Page company was completed last yesterday afternoon the attorneys for the respective parties, J. Joseph O'Connor for the plaintiff and Trull & Wier for the defense, made their arguments at the resumption of superior court at 10 o'clock this forenoon and two hours later court was adjourned until tomorrow forenoon as Judge Fox left to attend the funeral of Judge Sherman which took place in Boston this afternoon.

The arguments of the two attorneys occupied the entire morning session. Mr. Wier arguing that the law who was killed in the automobile accident was not due care, while Mr. O'Connor contended that the driver was negligent and was driving at a high rate of speed without sounding his horn when passing intersecting streets. At the opening of court tomorrow, Judge Fox will charge the jury after which a new case will be called.

MATRIMONIAL

A pretty marriage took place last night at St. Margaret's rectory, when Mr. Christopher J. Horan and Miss Margaret M. Bagshaw, two well known residents of this city were united in the bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed at 7 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Fr. Galligan. The bridegroom, and Miss Theresa Sharkey acted as best man and bridesmaid respectively. At the close of the ceremony the bride party repaired to the home of the bride's mother, 24 Marlboro street, where a dinner was held, followed by a brief reception. The happy couple left in the evening on a honeymoon trip and upon their return they will reside in a new home they recently purchased in Stevens street.

Several of the schools, it was gated today, will hold flag day exercises tomorrow. Some will wait until Monday and in some of the schools there will be no exercises at all.

At the Lakeside avenue school there will be a flag raising. Commissioner Donnelly, who has charge of the lands and buildings department, has supplied the pole and everything is in readiness for a big time. There are other schools that will have flag raisings later on, but the Lakeside avenue school will be very much in the limelight tomorrow.

The Moody school will have exercises around the flag pole in the school yard.

ANOTHER WAR BETWEEN GREECE AND TURKEY

LONDON, June 11.—Another war between Greece and Turkey is foreshadowed today by the Times, which says the unrest in the Balkans has become acute. Several of the states, it says, recently have been employed in clearing their newly acquired territory of "undesirable" elements and the Bulgarians have been the principal sufferers. The unrest is attributed by the newspaper to the drastic policy of the young Turks in expelling all Greeks from Asia Minor and Turkish Thrace. This policy, the Times believes, is a prelude to a declaration of war upon Greece, the main object being the reconquest by Turkey of Saloniki and the reoccupation of Macedonia.

RELIGIOUS MARRIAGE

OF MISS WILLARD AND KERMIT ROOSEVELT AT MADRID, SPAIN, TODAY

MADRID, Spain, June 11.—The religious marriage ceremony which united Miss Bella Willard, daughter of the American ambassador to the Spanish court, and Kermit Roosevelt, son of ex-President Roosevelt, was held in the chapel of the British embassy today.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Samuel Watson, rector of the American church of the Holy Trinity at Paris, assisted by the Rev. Herbert H. Brown of the British embassy chapel here.

The maid of honor was Miss Elizabeth Willard, sister of the bride and the bridesmaids were the Princess of Thurn and Taxis, Miss Katherine Page, Miss Gilmore Veneur De Tilders and Miss Virginia Christian.

Despite a drenching rain a large crowd of spectators gathered outside the American embassy and church to watch the arrival and departure of the bride and bridegroom and the wedding guests.

The bride was dressed in ivory satin and tulle with a court train and wore orange blossoms arranged with old lace and a long veil of tulle and lace.

The wedding breakfast was served at the American embassy. A reception was held afterward, but rain made it impossible for the guests to remain in the gardens of the embassy, which had been handsomely decorated for the occasion.

The bride and bridegroom plan to pass their honeymoon in the south of Spain.

REFORMED CHURCH SYNOD AT ASBURY PARK, N. J. DISPLEASED WITH PRES. WILSON

ASBURY PARK, N. J., June 11.—Giving further consideration to President Wilson's attendance at the pan-denominational mass in a Roman Catholic church in Washington last Thanksgiving day, the general synod of the Reformed church in America, before concluding its annual convention here yesterday, adopted a resolution favoring the holding of a Protestant pan-denominational service at the capital next Thanksgiving day, to which the president, the vice president, the cabinet and other officials would be invited.

Tuesday the synod's overtures committee at the synod's instructions, submitted a report "expressing disapproval" because President Wilson attended the Catholic service.

PASTOR A HYPNOTIST

SAID HE HAD USED IT ON MAN AND MADE EXPERIMENTS

HARTFORD, Conn., June 11.—"Yes, sir, I believe I hypnotized a man to sleep as long ago as 1895, when I was a student at Trinity," was one of the admissions wrung from the Rev. Cranston Brenton of Yonkers, N. Y., during his merciless cross-examination by Attorney David E. Fitzgerald of New Haven, chief counsel for Mrs. Elizabeth A. C. Holman of Waterville, Me.

Mrs. Holman is suing Brenton, her divorced husband, and Dr. Smith Waterman and Dr. Oliver C. Smith of this city for $50,000 damages for a alleged conspiracy to imprison her in the Vermont state insane asylum at Brattleboro in September, 1912, until she gave them a written confession of wrongdoing with her present husband, F. Ernest Holman.

Mrs. Holman's mother, Mrs. Susan R. Curtis, now living in Sierra Madre, Cal., has sent on a deposition that she thought Brenton exorcised a hypnotic influence over his wife, and in this statement he was asked about his skill in the cult. Brenton said he became interested in hypnotism in 1895 and was so enthusiastic over it he had studied it ever since. The intent was evidently to show that Brenton might have hypnotized his wife.

VANITIE AND RESOLUTE

SIXTH TRIAL RACE TODAY—DEPLACED UNABLE TO GET INTO THE RACE—VANITIE WINS

ASSOCIATED PRESS BOAT (by wireless, off Sandy Hook), June 11.—The cup defense candidates, Resolute and Vanitie, fought out their sixth trial race today without a third competitor. The tri-city yacht defense was unable to remedy the defects in her rigging made evident by yesterday's contest, and did not enter the trial today.

The course today was triangular, 30 miles long, over the historic American cup waters. The sea was smooth and the wind at the start was barely five miles an hour.

In the struggle at the start to windward Resolute gained the first advantage and forced the Gardner boat to cross ahead. The preliminary jockeying lasted so long that both boats crossed the line after the two-minute handicap period. Resolute 20 seconds behind her rival.

Keeping her head as they reached along the Jersey headlands toward the first mark off Long Branch and gradually opened up a little more water.

It looked like a long race and a good light weather test.

The actual times of the start were: Vanitie 11:57; Resolute 11:47.

Vanitie had the weather position. It was just the kind of sailing the Gardner boat delights in. The sea was smooth and she slid through the water easily, working out quite a bit ahead of Resolute.

Vanitie carried mastsail, chopstaysail, forestay sail, jib and racing jib. Resolute carried the same excepting a forestaysail, being single head rigged. Both yachts made good time and the steam craft following the race had to hook up to full speed to keep near them. The wind held true about ten knots.

FIRING ON OUTSKIRTS OF MAZATLAN HEARD

Constitutionalists Advancing for Determined Assault—A Well Directed Attack, it is Thought, Would Result in the Capture of City

ON BOARD U. S. S. CALIFORNIA, MAZATLAN, via wireless to San Diego, June 11.—Heavy firing on the outskirts of Mazatlan was heard tonight. It is believed the constitutionalists are advancing for a determined assault. A well directed attack, it is thought, would result in the capture of the city.

Fearing that the neutral zone recently designated for non-combatants might not be respected in the attack, the entire coast corps at Mazatlan sent a note today through Rear Admiral Howland, commanding the United States Pacific fleet, to General Turbe, the constitutionalist commander, asking questions that the zone be safeguarded. Minister Adachi, returning to Mexico City after an unsuccessful effort to reach the west coast, has

CONFERENCE ON THAW CASE

ATTORNEYS DISCUSS PROPOSAL THAT THAW BE ALLOWED TO GO TO PITTSBURGH

NEW YORK, June 11.—William T. Travers Jerome, representing the state of New York, and counsel for Harry K. Thaw met in conference in New York today to discuss a proposal that Thaw be allowed to go to Pittsburgh to testify in the matter of his father's estate. If this is agreed upon the application before the United States supreme court to have Thaw admitted to testify in the matter of his father's estate will be withdrawn. Thaw is now in New Hampshire.

If he is allowed to go to Pittsburgh he will be in custody of a United States marshal.

Mr. Jerome indicated before the conclusion of the conference that there was no chance that Thaw would be allowed to return to Pittsburgh. A formal statement of the terms of the agreement reached, he said, would be issued later.

Thaw was represented in the conference by Merrill Shurtliff of Lancaster, N. H.

THAW'S COUNSEL TALKS

PITTSBURGH, June 11.—I don't know anything about this move to have Harry Thaw brought here in custody of a United States marshal, but it might be up because he has attorney here other than me," said former Gov. William A. Stone, today.

Under Thaw's directions and authority to have him released on bail, I will not be satisfied with anything else.

"The cases in which he will be needed as a witness are those in which the trustees of the estate of the late William Thaw, his father, have decided that the stocks of the Standard Oil subsidiary companies are principal and must be added to the value of the estate. Thaw and the other heirs claim they are innocent and the amounts should be paid to them."

DRACUT SCHOOL WORK

On Exhibition at Grange Hall, Dracut Centre, This Afternoon and Evening

The parents and friends of the pupils of all the Dracut schools were this afternoon given a fine opportunity to inspect the work of the children done during the past school term in drawing, penmanship and manual training, and also to note the progress achieved by many of the scholars, when a most pleasing exhibit was held at Grange Hall, Dracut Centre.

The large hall was literally covered with drawings of all descriptions, among which were several difficult pieces, and a variety of copies of penmanship, as well as several substantial pieces fabricated by the children in the manual training course. The Dracut schools do not specialize on manual training, but a little of it is being done in every school and what is on exhibit today shows the ability of some of the children, especially the girls, who have in the exhibit a long list of small articles which are very useful about the house. The showing made was highly creditable to the teachers and pupils.

The exhibit is in charge of Miss Margaret Carney, supervisor of drawing in the Dracut schools, and the schools represented at the affair are as follows: Parker Avenue, Dracut Centre, Collinsville, Kenwood, Dracut, Broadway and Goodhue. This afternoon the hall opened at 2 o'clock and a large gathering was on hand to congratulate the supervisor for the success of the year's schooling, and many voiced their appreciation of the work on exhibition. The hall closed at 4 o'clock and this evening it will be open from 7 to 9 to give all who were not able to attend this afternoon an opportunity to inspect the work of the children.

STRIKE CLOSES FACTORY

Rattan Factory of Heywood Bros. & Wakefield Company Was Closed Today

WAKEFIELD, June 11.—The rattan factory of the Heywood Bros. & Wakefield Co. was closed indefinitely by the managers today by a strike of more than 650 of its 1000 employees.

In a statement issued today the company officials expressed regret at the action which they felt they were obliged to take and said that the decision to close resulted from the present attitude of a large section of the employees.

Nearly eight weeks ago the weavers and teamsters' helpers struck for increased wages and employees in other departments quit in sympathy.

The strike lasted six weeks, but all the operatives returned June 1 as a result of conferences between company, employees and the state board of conciliation and arbitration.

Four hundred hands affiliated with the American Federation of Labor struck two days ago because, they alleged, several workmen had been discharged on account of their activities during the previous strike. Today all members of the I. W. O. left their work and the company officials decided this afternoon to close the plant indefinitely.

WILD MILITANT IS ARRESTED

LONDON, June 11.—Miss Sylvia Pankhurst was not even permitted to approach Westminster last night to interview Premier Asquith.

The proposed visit to the prime minister was arranged for some days ago by Miss Pankhurst and other militant leaders and it was decided Tuesday night that she should be carried shoulder-high in the procession as she was not considered strong enough to bear the strain of what promised to be an arduous journey.

Before the procession had gone a mile, Miss Pankhurst was arrested for the eighth time since she was sentenced to six months' imprisonment for leading a procession in Hyde Park, and conveyed to Holloway jail.

The procession struggled on without a leader, but by the time it reached the Strand it had been dispersed by the police.

Under the leadership of George Lansbury, former socialist member of the house of commons, a deputation of women proceeded to parliament where they were received by P. H. Jennings, the chief liberal whip, after having been refused in all attempts to see the premier.

The deputation was organized with all the well known cleverness of the suffragettes for dramatic effect. A crowd of 1000 people gathered at 8 o'clock at the junction of Commercial road and Fenchurch street, Whitechapel, where two processions, one from Bow and the other from Finsbury, were to join about the same hour.

The waiting throngs were addressed by a Rev. Mr. Willis, who offered prayer for Miss Pankhurst and by Miss Pankhurst herself, who said it might be the last time she could address them.

AT WESTMINSTER ABBEY

ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP CORONATION CHAIR WAS MADE BY MILITANT SUFFRAGETTES

LONDON, June 11.—An attempt to blow up the coronation chair, which has been in Westminster Abbey since 1295, was made this evening. The outrage is attributed by the authorities to the wild women.

The chair, generally called St. Edward's chair out of respect to Edward the Confessor, near whose shrine it stands, was made by order of King Edward I, to hold the coronation stone, or Stone of Destiny, on which the ancient Scottish kings used to sit when they were crowned. It was captured by Edward I from the Scots.

The chair was placed on a chair by today's explosion was slight. The explosive had been placed beneath it but its effects seemed not to reach the chair itself, which is of solid oak covered with gilding and ornamental work. The famous old stone, however, was badly chipped.

The history of the stone, so far as is known goes back to the year 850, when it was placed in the Abbey of Scone, Perthshire, by King Kenneth of Scotland. A legend connected with it says it is the identical stone on which the biblical patriarch Jacob laid his head when he had the vision of the angels ascending and descending the ladder that reached to heaven. The kings of Scotland for many centuries were crowned while seated on it. The police took possession of the stone after the outrage.

The explosion occurred while Rev. Mr. Willis was talking on the coronation stone in the house of commons. The detonation was plainly heard in the parliament house and members of the commons and the peers flocked out into parliament square to ascertain what had happened.

general report of the work will be forthcoming in a week or ten days. In the meantime test wells are being operated across the river in a search for an auxiliary supply.

Fourth of July Observance

What will be the city's program for the celebration of the glorious fourth for the year 1914?

Will the program include balloon ascensions, fireworks, etc?

Letters from fireworks companies are being received at city hall and several balloonists, parachuteists, and other kinds of stunts are anxious to give an exhibition in Lowell on July 4, but there'll be nothing doing for there is nothing to do with.

The municipal council has not made any appropriation for a celebration this year and neither has any appropriation been made for Labor day. There is a bare possibility that a small sum may be taken from some other appropriation or appropriations but to do this would be out of the ordinary and a bit irregular.

Tax Book Appropriation

The failure of the municipal council to make appropriations for the proper observance of July 4 and Labor day does not mean that any ordinance has been violated, but an ordinance was violated when the council failed to make an appropriation for the printing out of the tax book or lists inaugurated by ex-Alderman Dodge. The board of trade directors have taken the matter up, but it will be rather difficult for the council to do anything now as there isn't any money in state. The tax book should have been issued last year. The expense of getting out the book is $1500 and the assessors of taxes asked last year's government for that amount, but the council gave the assessors the marble heart. Later in the year the assessors addressed a letter to the government and they are still waiting an answer to that letter, though it was stated therein that several inquiries were made at the assessors' office for tax books and that the books should be gotten out. The ordinance having to do with the publication of the tax books reads as follows:

Beginning in the month of September, 1907, and every two years thereafter, the assessors of taxes of the city of Lowell shall cause to be printed at the expense of their department for general distribution 1000 copies of a list which shall contain the following information: Names of all persons who are taxpayers, arranged in the order of assessment by streets together with valuation and tax; the names of all real estate taxpayers; location of real estate, arranged in numerical order by streets; valuation of buildings; valuation of land; area; valuation per foot; and so on. Approved March 26, 1906.

The assessors asked this year's government for an appropriation for the tax books and received the same treatment as was accorded them last year. They were ignored.

Paving Work Started

Alderman Morse gave out today that the paving work in Gorham street had been started this morning. There has been considerable criticism of the work in that street thus far. It has been claimed that great speed could be acquired, but Mr. Morse says that the work has been pushed with all possible speed. He allows that it is a slow job at best but that he will get through with it as quickly as possible.

tion of the revised laws, notice of which was received at the city clerk's office today. When the parties appeared to the use of the Pillsbury estate for a condition hospital were settled at their defense they discovered that the site could not be selected if the present authorities objected and later some objection was offered from the present authorities.

The status of the contentious hospital proposition in Lowell is just what it was in the beginning and if the question ever comes again on the part of the Pillsbury estate, the present authorities will not have a word to say about it, and the reason is contained in the following act relative to the location of hospitals:

Section 1. Section 27 of chapter 15 of the revised laws, which provides that no hospital shall be established within 100 rods of an inhabited dwelling house situated in an adjoining city or town, without the consent of such city or town, is hereby repealed.

Section 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage. (Approved May 21, 1914.)

Chicken Thieves Beware

Of course we are not all chicken thieves, but most of us are fond of chickens, and a few of us keep chickens, and in order to know how far we can go in the protection of chickens or the prosecution of the fellow who gets them away from us, it is necessary to resort to the law, and the following act, a copy of which was received at the city clerk's office today, contains some information about this line:

Section 1. Whoever with intent to commit larceny, breaks or enters, or enters in the night without breaking any building or enclosure wherein are kept or confined any kind of poultry, may be detained or kept in custody in a convenient place by the owner of the poultry, or by his agent or employee, for not more than twenty-four hours.

Section 2. Whenever a complaint can be made against him for the offense and he be taken upon a warrant issued upon such complaint.

Section 3. Whoever is convicted of such trespassing or breaking or entering shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the house of correction for not more than two years.

(The foregoing was laid before the governor on the twenty-fifth day of May, 1914, and after five days it had "the force of a law," as prescribed by the constitution as it was not returned by him with his objections within that time.)
